A Principles Based Approach For English Language Teaching:

Race and Ethnicity in English Language Teaching Christopher Joseph Jenks, 2017-08-14 This book examines racism and racialized discourses in the ELT profession in South Korea The book is informed by a number of different critical approaches to race and discourse and the discussions contained in the chapters offer one way of exploring how the ELT profession can be understood from such perspectives Observations made are based on the understanding that racism should not be viewed as individual acts of discrimination but rather as a system of social structures While the book is principally concerned with language teaching and learning in South Korea the findings are situated in a wider discussion of race and ethnicity in the global ELT profession The book makes the following argument White normativity is an ideological commitment and a form of racialized discourse that comes from the social actions of those involved in the ELT profession this normative model or ideal standard constructs a system of racial discrimination that is founded on White privilege saviorism and neoliberalism Drawing on a wide range of data sources this book is a must read for anyone interested in critically examining ELT

Language Across the Curriculum & CLIL in English as an Additional Language (EAL) Contexts Angel M.Y. Lin, 2016-09-15 This book will be of interest to a broad readership regardless of whether they have a background in sociolinguistics functional linguistics or genre theories It presents an accessible meta language i e a language for talking about language that is workable and usable for teachers and researchers from both language and content backgrounds thus facilitating collaboration across content and language subject panels Chapters 1 to 3 lay the theoretical foundation of this common meta language by critically reviewing systematically presenting and integrating key theoretical resources for teachers and researchers in this field In turn Chapters 4 to 7 focus on issues in pedagogy and assessment and on school based approaches to LAC and CLIL drawing on both research studies and the experiences of front line teachers and school administrators Chapter 8 provides a critical and reflexive angle on the field by asking difficult questions regarding how LAC and CLIL are often situated in contexts characterized by inequality of access to the linguistic and cultural capitals where the local languages of the students are usually neglected or viewed unfavourably in relation to the L2 in mainstream society and where teachers are usually positioned as recipients of knowledge rather than makers of knowledge In closing Chapter 9 reviews the state of the art in the field and proposes directions for future inquiry
