General Assembly of the State of Illinois Illinois. General Assembly, 1929 The Wages of Seeking Help Carol Bohmer, 2000-03-30 Because women are more likely to seek professional help and because they are more likely to be the victims of abuse by people in positions of power women who do seek professional assistance may end up being victims of sexual exploitation by the very people from whom they seek help Unlike other problems which primarily affect women such as rape and domestic violence this issue has received little public attention and has had little success in building a social movement to combat it Bohmer analyzes the social construction of this unique problem and the response it has received from individuals groups and various institutions such as the law and the regulatory process Bohmer explains why this problem has a different history from other problems facing primarily women and why it has not had much success in stirring social movement for addressing the problem Using other issues of feminist concern Bohmer connects the problem of professional sexual exploitation to issues of gender and power and shows the ways in which women seeking help are punished for doing so In addition the available self help groups and organizations are examined in light of their benefits and relative lack of success in combating the problem The legal and regulatory systems in place are also discussed in terms of the ways in which society responds to new social problems as they receive public attention Corruptible Brian Klaas, 2021-11-09 An absorbing provocative and far reaching Kirkus Reviews starred review look at what power is who gets it and what happens when they do based on over 500 interviews with those who temporarily at least have had the upper hand from the creator of the Power Corrupts podcast and Washington Post columnist Brian Klaas Does power corrupt or are corrupt people drawn to power Are tyrants made or born Are entrepreneurs who embezzle and cops who kill the result of poorly designed systems or are they just bad people If you were suddenly thrust into a position of power would you be able to resist the temptation to line your pockets or seek revenge against your enemies To answer these questions Corruptible draws on over 500 interviews with some of the world's top leaders from the noblest to the dirtiest including presidents and philanthropists as well as rebels cultists and dictators Some of the fascinating insights include how facial appearance determines who we pick as leaders why narcissists make more money why some people don't want power
