Why Do We Fight? A Personal Academic Essay David Evans,2016-12-01 Essay from the year 2016 in the subject Sociology War and Peace Military grade Freshman The University of Montana course WRIT 101 language English abstract In this paper we will explore the social cultural religious and even genetic influences that drive the warrior culture and mindset By blending historical examples research papers and my own personal experience I hope to shed some light on the question Why do we fight It is well known that all great empires were built on the backs of men and women who were willing to fight and die for someone else The Romans the Mongolians even the United States of America all rose to power because they had large armies full of strong warriors What is it that makes these people warriors What can lead someone to cast aside safety and security leave their friends and family behind and lead a life that will almost certainly end violently As a United States Army Veteran of both the Afghan and Iraqi wars this is a subject that has always intrigued me When you are thousands of miles from home fighting an enemy you know very little about you begin to wonder How did I get here Imagine if you will that instead of heading off to college or starting an entry level job the first time you left home you flew to a military base had a rifle put in your hands and had extremely dangerous people teach you how to kill with it Instead of studying for exams you study combat manuals instead of going on spring break you go to a war zone What the hell would make someone do such a thing
