Paparella,2012 The essays in this book are the distillation of years of reflection writing lecturing and active participation in the ongoing debate on the cultural identity of the European Union the vicissitudes of the transatlantic dialogue the envisioning of new social paradigms the building of more solid and more relevant bridges of understanding between two continents that have a common Western humanistic tradition albeit synthesized to other cultures in America While the approach is personal it remains interdisciplinary and holistic throughout rooted in the poetic philosophy of history of Giambattista Vico and encompassing literature philosophy myth linguistics and political science on the edge of boundaries between the historical grand narrative the religious and even the quotidian and the anecdotal These thirty essays trace the origins of Western Civilization and the synthesis of Humanism and Christianity that is the Renaissance but also Janus like face they look forward to a new Renaissance and humanistic synthesis yet to be envisioned and forged that will dare to be both old and new that will encompass the poetical as well as the rational without losing sight of the universality of our common humanity The journey may be long arduous but it has already begun some sixty years ago Moreover these essays will appeal especially to those readers who are perplexed at the loss of humanistic modes of thought in our post modern technological society A book sure to stimulate the intellect and the imagination of its readers They are given to understand from the outset that Europe more than a geographical political reality is an evolving idea and it is her destiny to live or die as such The readers will be provided with a Vichian chart to assist them in intellectually navigating and journey on this unique idea called Europa

Learning and Cognition Michael E. Martinez, 2010 What is the design of the mind What does that design imply for education This comprehensive and engaging introduction to human learning and its applications to education focuses on these vital questions by exploring the theories of knowledge complex cognition and human intelligence presenting a clear and interesting overview of the human mind through multiple theoretical lenses The author delineates how the mind has a clear design or architecture that explains simple acts of memory and complex cognition to highly creative acts and leaps of scientific or artistic insight Topics covered throughout the text include memory motivation cognitive development the brain and intelligence Unique to this text the author has provided an interdisciplinary chapter dedicated to theories of knowledge extended coverage of expert novice differences and talent development and a chapter devoted to intelligence Readers will appreciate special features like Learning Strategies which cover specific application of the theories to classroom practice and Interest Magnets which explore fascinating topics such as photographic memory sleep learning and Einstein's brain Written like a narrative Learning and Cognition The Design of the Mind will delight its readers interest and attention as they learn about the theories of human learning and cognition and the improvement of the mind through education
