Glass! Love!! Perpetual Motion!!! Paul Scheerbart, 2014-10-19 German writer critic and theorist Paul Scheerbart 1863 1915 died nearly a century ago but his influence is still being felt today Considered by some a mad eccentric and by others a visionary political thinker in his own time he is now experiencing a revival thanks to a new generation of scholars who are rightfully situating him in the modernist pantheon Glass Love Perpetual Motion is the first collection of Scheerbart s multifarious writings to be published in English In addition to a selection of his fantastical short stories it includes the influential architectural manifesto Glass Architecture and his literary tour de force Perpetual Motion The Story of an Invention The latter written in the guise of a scientific work complete with technical diagrams was taken as such when first published but in reality is a fiction albeit one with an important message Glass Love Perpetual Motion is richly illustrated with period material much of it never before reproduced including a selection of artwork by Paul Scheerbart himself Accompanying this original material is a selection of essays by scholars novelists and filmmakers commissioned for this publication to illuminate Scheerbart's importance then and now in the worlds of art architecture and culture Coedited by artist Josiah McElheny and Christine Burgin with new artwork created for this publication by McElheny Glass Love Perpetual Motion is a long overdue monument to a modern master
