Gender Blender:

Gender Blender Blake Nelson, 2009-02-25 Perfect for fans of classic teen comedies like She's All That and Freaky Friday this is the story of two tweens who can't imagine problems bigger than their own until they wake up one morning and realize they've switched bodies All Emma wants is for Jeff Matthews to notice her to avoid sexist boys and to finally get her period All Tom wants is to not look like a wuss at school to figure out his new blended family and to get a chance with Kelly A Neither thinks about much else That is until something freaky happens Emma and Tom wake up one morning in each other's bodies Now all Emma can think about is how to dodge the mean girls who torment her and all Tom can think about is how to avoid being alone with Jeff Matthews This hilarious and thought provoking read will have tweens wondering what high school is really like for the classmates they consider their opposites and have them second guessing the pre-conceived notions they may have about each other

Creating Identity Jayashree Kamblé, 2023-04-11 While the world often categorizes women in reductive false binaries careerist versus mother feminine versus fierce romance novels a unique form of the love story offer an imaginative space of mingled alternatives for a heroine on her journey to selfhood In Creating Identity Jayashree Kamblé examines the romance genre with its sensile flexibility in retaining what audiences find desirable and discarding what is not by asking an important question Who is the romance heroine and what does she want To find the answer Kamblé explores how heroines in ten novels reject societal labels and instead remake themselves on their own terms with their own agency Using a truly intersectional approach Kamblé combines gender and sexuality Marxism critical race theory and literary criticism to survey various aspects of heroines identities such as sexuality gender work citizenship and race Ideal for readers interested in gender studies and literary criticism Creating Identity highlights a genre in which heroines do not accept that independence and strong loving relationships are mutually exclusive but instead demand both echoing the call from the very readers who have made this genre so popular
