Read and revise

Read the whole story through once, focusing on the way Robert's feelings about his daughters change.

- 1 Robert is unhappy about a number of things in his life. The first of these things is suggested in the first paragraph. What is it, and how do you know?
- 2 Throughout the story things do not happen as Robert expects. What is the first indication of this, in the second paragraph?
- 3 The next five paragraphs, up to 'Hullo, hullo, children' (line 25), are all about the garden, which suggests that it is important in the story in some way. The garden is described as 'a wilderness'. Look through the five paragraphs, and pick out the things that are 'wild' in the garden.
 - The parents hoped that the children 'should do what they liked' in the garden. How does this relate to the rest of the story?
 - Quick prefers the 'wild' garden to the 'shaved' and 'combed' gardens of his neighbours? Think about the end of the story, and what Quick seems to prefer by then.
