

MORPHOLOGY - EXERCISES

Note: all the sentences in the exercises are from Bryson, Bill. 1990. Mother Tongue. The English Language. Harmondsworth: Penguin Books.

Exercise 1

Divide the following sentence into words and morphemes. Count how many different words and how many different morphemes appear.

One of the greatest mysteries of prehistory is how people in widely separated places suddenly and spontaneously developed the capacity for language at roughly the same time.

Exercise 2

In the following sentences, divide all the words into morphemes by putting hyphens between them. Then identify each morpheme as lexical or grammatical, and each morph as bound or free.

- We tend to slur those things more familiar to us, particularly place names.
- So how many of these words do we know?
- In many places English is widely resented as a symbol of colonialism.
- Two events gave a boost to the adoption of surnames in England.
- There is little evidence to suggest that people are refusing to learn English.

Exercise 3

Do a morphemic and morphological analysis of the following words. If there is a morphophoneme, indicate which allomorph appears: bloody, knives, knot, men, steaks, talking, took.
