Gender-Based Violence and Digital Media in South Africa Millie Mayiziveyi Phiri, 2023-10-02 This book presents a new paradigm for attending to gender based violence GBV social media discourse among marginalised Black women in South Africa Focusing on the intersections of television and social media the study charts the morphing and merging of the inside of the soap opera and the outside of the real world amid a rise in feminist social media activism The analysis begins with coverage of gender based violence in a long running South African soap opera and social media discussion of these issues in parallel with real world events and the collective social media response The author offers pertinent insights into audiences in sub Saharan Africa presenting a new feminist trajectory for women and activism in the region Offering new insights into an important issue this book will be of interest to scholars and students of gender cultural studies film studies television studies sociology development studies feminism media and journalism International Perspectives on Gender-Based Violence

Madhumita Pandey, 2023-11-24 This book examines the multifaceted nature of gender based violence GBV and the many forms it can take It explores the area of GBV and its implications on human rights law and policy The book highlights the significance of current international debates around preventing GBV and provides context for understanding GBV as a complex structural phenomenon deeply rooted in gender inequality It addresses GBV as one of the most notable human rights violations within all societies and provides multiple global perspectives on GBV to address the common challenges and barriers to combating this issue Key areas of coverage include Sexual violence Domestic violence Intimate partner violence Media Misogyny Online trolling Discrimination Sex trafficking and modern slavery Preventative Measures and role of men International Perspectives on Gender Based Violence is an essential resource for researchers clinicians therapists and upper level undergraduate and graduate students in developmental psychology family policy forensic psychology human rights public health criminology criminal justice and clinical social work as well as all interrelated disciplines Enhancing

Student Support in Higher Education in Southern Africa Francis Machingura, Shamiso Christine Madzivire, 2026-02-19 Arguing for a holistic approach to student support this book explores how to better serve students in African settings through the services and programmes offered at universities providing empirical studies case studies and theoretical explorations from four Southern African countries Acknowledging the ultimate role of student support services in improving and enhancing the overall student experience the book includes voices and perspectives of lecturers students and support staff to gain an on the ground understanding of challenges faced Chapters cover a wealth of themes related to student support and services such as accommodation and student life sexual and gender based violence support services and ICT services and explore educational settings in Zimbabwe Malawi South Africa and Eswatini The book explores areas for growth and the need for multi level engagement and responsibility in higher education where the obligation of curating an inclusive and conducive learning environment is shared amongst all key stakeholders By shining a spotlight on African approaches and innovations the book contributes underrepresented viewpoints to the established field of global higher education discourse The book will be of interest to scholars researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of higher education student affairs practice and higher education administration as well as African studies The book will provide useful insights more broadly for international scholars in the global south interested in student support and services in resource constrained settings

Tourism and Gender-based Violence Paola Vizcaino, Heather Jeffrey, Claudia Eger, 2020-08-14 This book focuses on the multiple and interconnected manifestations of violence that women girls encounter in tourism consumption and production while seeking to open the debate on violence against sexual minorities LGBT and discussing men boys as victims and perpetrators of GBV

Un-Mapping the Global South Gero Bauer, Nicole Hirschfelder, Fernando Resende, 2024-03-19 This book offers new approaches and insights into the ongoing and topical discussions on the concepts and definitions of the global south Instead of adding to the debates about how to properly define the global south as such it aims at emphasising concrete experiences and accounts of post colonial dislocation and disidentification as both a starting point and linchpin for the subsequent exploration It brings into conversation theories and interrogations of the global south with specific local studies without presenting them as the romanticised other or as non western narratives As a bold initiation of future conversations on issues that both directly and indirectly affect ideas about the global south the volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of critical theory literary and cultural studies and global south studies
