International Relations of Asia David Shambaugh, 2022-05-06 A 2023 Choice Reviews Outstanding Academic Title This is the most up to date and comprehensive volume on the international relations of Asia and the Indo Pacific The Asian region has become the fulcrum of international relations globally it is the most economically vibrant geostrategically significant socially and culturally diverse and militarily dangerous region in the world The world s leading great powers the United States and China jockey for primacy and vie for influence throughout the region while middle powers India Indonesia Japan and South Korea are extending their regional reach The ten member Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN is collectively important in its own right but has also become the epicenter of US China regional competition While Australia New Zealand and the Pacific Islands largely operate in their own orbits Australia has assumed growing regional impact North Korea and Taiwan are both significant actors but they are also each tinderboxes of potential conflict While the region is geographically sprawling across the Indo Pacific it is tied together economically technologically and strategically No one working in or on Asia cannot afford to read this volume

EU-India Relations Philipp Gieg, Timo Lowinger, Manuel Pietzko, Anja Zürn, Ummu Salma Bava, Gisela Müller-Brandeck-Bocquet, 2021-02-27 India and the European Union bear a particular responsibility as international relations change not least because of the global COVID 19 pandemic the two largest democracies in the world have the unique potential to jointly demonstrate that trusting cooperation and mutual understanding are both indispensable and fruitful all the more so in the context of increasing national egoism and disregard for the fundamental principles of multilateralism This realisation is not new Believing in the necessity and mutual benefit of close cooperation India and the EU struck a strategic partnership in 2004 But resounding success in forging closer bilateral ties and promoting an inclusive rules based global order has proved elusive Since 2016 however the EU s Global Strategy has offered new opportunities for a restart of European foreign policy envisaging new partnerships and recalibrating existing ones On India s part too changing stances have presented new openings with New Delhi criticising protectionism and calling for a strengthening of multilateralism This timely book scrutinises the status quo and the future potential of revitalised EU India relations By exploring and analysing conceptual approaches to and key dimensions of the strategic partnership including trade climate policy and development cooperation it evaluates the prospects for future cooperation Lastly it offers policy recommendations for advancing the partnership between India and the EU

In Levittown's Shadow Tim Keogh, 2023-11-03 Inverting the conventional history of American suburbanization Tim Keogh turns the spotlight from wealth and freedom to poverty and inequality Focusing on the archetypal Long Island communities of the postwar era Keogh shows that a key driver of suburban development and the segregation it embodied was not housing but employment Inequality and injustice were baked into suburban development but housing discrimination was a secondary expression of this not a primary cause As a result equity minded suburbs that focused on housing policy rather than employment opportunities were doomed to fail Keogh hopes to motivate more effective approaches to contemporary inequity by changing our understanding of how it took shape historically
