Language Curriculum Innovation in a Chinese Secondary School Yan Zhu,2017-11-29 This book offers a comprehensive overview of the changes in foreign language teachers cognition and practices during a four year innovation project at a Chinese secondary school and explores the factors that influenced the trajectory of those changes It makes a substantial contribution to research on educational change by offering a longitudinal observation of the facts and voices in EFL settings in China as such the book offers a valuable resource for scholars teacher educators teachers and others interested in initiating managing and evaluating innovations in EFL classrooms Resolving Classroom Management and School Leadership Issues in ELT David Prescott,2011-07-12 This book builds on work commenced by the Higher Colleges of Technology HCT in the United Arab Emirates which nurtured a research culture and encouraged young professionals to evaluate practices in the workplace of teaching the classroom The current volume takes this further and features the work of mature and experienced teachers who use action research to examine problems and practices in a variety of situations through the prism of leadership and management The book features two introductory chapters The first highlights the importance of research for the academy and in particular for the academies of the United Arab Emirates The significance of research and publication for the development of quality in education is discussed Similarly the twin concerns of learning through investigation and the sharing of that learning through publication are emphasized Chapter Two gives background to action research and identifies the small but growing body of work in this field in the United Arab Emirates The particular relevance of action research to leadership and management in English language teaching is discussed especially the learning capacity that this method of enquiry encompasses Chapters Three to Ten feature the work of the local researchers These chapters cover a variety of concerns which can be roughly grouped into management of classroom and teaching issues and broader educational leadership matters Classroom management issues include making group work more effective improving students out of class learning improving students personal responsibility and attendance patterns stimulating oral participation in class by students and improving student interactivity The broad leadership matters explore issues of time management understanding students and developing effective staff meetings The book concludes with a short chapter of reflection by the eight researcher authors written twelve months after the original action research investigations This section marks the book as special as retrospective evaluation is rare in education The chapter shows that the professional development engagement and enrichment which result from action research are empowering qualities Toward Inclusive Learning Design Brad Hokanson, Marisa Exter, Matthew M. Schmidt, Andrew A. Tawfik, 2023-11-09 This book examines how society has been affected by the social upheaval of the years since George Floyd's death and efforts by those in education and educational technology to address the concerns of equity, community and social justice This book is a practical yet scholarly guide in the pursuit of inclusive design drawing from a diverse range of authors with a broad range of application and theory The chapters go beyond a narrow view of inclusive learning design and address issues in a broad range of fields This book is appropriate for all levels of learning with a distinct focus on higher education and graduate education Fundamentals of Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages in K-12 Mainstream Classrooms Eileen N. Ariza, Hanizah Zainuddin, 2002 Studies in Korean Linguistics and Language Pedagogy Sung-Ock S. Sohn, Sungdai Cho, Sök-hun Yu, 2013 Second Language Instruction/acquisition Abstracts, 1996 Not for ESOL Teachers Eileen N. Ariza, 2006 Building on this foundation of understanding the author describes effective instructional practices that mainstream teachers may use to address a range of classroom scenarios including detailed examples of how to modify curriculum for English learners with various levels of language proficiency Jacket Bakolori Journal of General Studies, 2011-12 Learning and Teaching from Experience Lía D. Kamhi-Stein, 2007 The majority of teachers of English to speakers of other languages around the world are nonnative speakers of English themselves Learning and Teaching from Experience presents a wide range of views on NNES nonnative English speaking professionals in ESL and EFL settings at various academic levels including K-12, adult education, community college and university This informative volume is divided into the sections focusing on theoretical underpinnings, research, teacher preparation and classroom application specific to issues facing NNES professionals Learning and Teaching from Experience is also one of the first volumes to present work by the founding members of the caucus for nonnative English speakers in the national TESOL professional association who are rightly considered to be experts in the field This book will surely interest NNES teachers and researchers as well as teacher educators and their trainees in the United States and abroad Technology to Teach Literacy Rebecca S. Anderson, Michael M. Grant, Bruce W. Speck, 2008 Technology to Teach Literacy A Resource for K-8 Teachers second edition is designed to provide teachers with an array of computer tools to promote reading, writing and critical thinking in their classrooms This text can be used not only in a preservice course but also by seasoned teachers who recognize the need to continue their education by becoming adept at using computers in their classrooms In short this book covers the major concerns K-8 teachers face as they integrate computer technology into their classrooms and provides numerous suggestions for applying the ideas described in the text in real classrooms The discussion of literacy topics and pedagogy is grounded in research literature best practice for teaching and current successful technology integration strategies Publisher description 120

Content Strategies for English Language Learners Jodi Reiss,2012 Provides 120 easy to follow strategies that examines different aspects of teaching ELL secondary students from building background knowledge to assessing learning Explores methods of presenting basic information about types of tests demonstrates test taking skills and discusses the use of accommodations Each chapter contains a summary and discussion questions Using Technology in K-8 Literacy Classrooms Rebecca S. Anderson,Bruce W. Speck,2001 A basic field guide format introduces 13 wild cat species Includes photographs and range maps The CATESOL Journal ,1999 International Studies Review ,1999 Interpersonal Dynamics in Second Language Education Madeline E. Ehrman,Zoltan Dornyei,1998-08-04 Until now relatively little research on interpersonal processes and group dynamics addressed the educational domain particularly second language education This book fills the gap by synthesizing diverse aspects of interpersonal and group psychology and exploring conscious and unconscious processes that affect learning and teaching Drawing on humanistic social and clinical psychology it addresses unconscious communication among people group development class climate psychological characteristics of effective classroom groups leadership roles interpersonal attraction and conflicts and the relationship of these to learner autonomy and collaborative learning The authors examine the contributions of the mental health branches of counseling and clinical psychology to our understanding of how teachers learners and a variety of figures who many never enter the classroom interact with each other to make second language learning more or less effective In particular the authors show how the unconscious scripts can cause unproductive conflict demotivation and eventual aversion to language learning Moreover the text shows how learning can be facilitated by appropriate use of interpersonal dynamics Due to its interdisciplinary nature this book will be of interest to teacher educators and practicing teachers researchers undergraduate and graduate students school administrators and supervisors of educational programs and many learners themselves In addition since the main focus of the book is the affective foundation of the teaching learning process this material will be relevant to non language teachers and clinical practitioners interested in educational issues as well as graduate students in training for those professions
