The Teahouse Di Wang, 2008 This study examines economic social political and cultural changes as funneled through the teahouses of Chengdu during the first half of the twentieth century Staging the War Albert Wertheim, 2004-03-16

What happened in American drama in the years between the Depression and the conclusion of World War II How did war make its impact on the theatre More important how was drama used during the war years to shape American beliefs and actions Albert Wertheim's Staging the War brings to light the important role played by the drama during what might arguably be called the most important decade in American history As much of the country experienced the dislocation of military service and work in war industries the dramatic arts registered the enormous changes to the boundaries of social classes ethnicities and gender roles In research ranging over more than 150 plays Wertheim discusses some of the well known works of the period including The Time of Your Life Our Town Watch on the Rhine and All My Sons But he also uncovers little known and largely unpublished plays for the stage and radio by such future luminaries as Arthur Miller and Frank Loesser including those written at the behest of the U S government or as U S O musicals The American son of refugees who escaped the Third Reich in 1937 Wertheim gives life to this vital period in American history The

Transformational Role of Dramaturgy in China's Performing Arts Ting Zhang, 2025-08-11 A pioneering examination of a field in its early stages Zhang delves into a detailed exploration of the evolving role of dramaturgy in contemporary Chinese theatre bridging the gap between established Western theories and the unique practices emerging in the Chinese theatre scene and offering valuable insight into the reshaping of theatre production amidst a rapidly changing cultural landscape Compared with the development of dramaturgy in Western countries dramaturgical practice in contemporary Chinese theatre is still in its infancy This book aims to fill this gap by exploring dramaturgy's evolution and current role in Chinese theatre It embarks on a global exploration in terms of both dramaturgical theories and practices across Germany the UK the US and the Asia Pacific region providing a theoretical framework It then traces the evolution of Chinese spoken drama Huaju from its origins in 1907 to the present This chronological exploration illuminates Huaju's development from foreign influences in the early decades to a more recent era of self exploration The book features three key case studies the reception of Henrik Ibsen's work in China the 1983 production of Arthur Miller's Death of a Salesman in Beijing and the writing and staging of Teahouse It also explores contemporary dramaturgical practices in China based on fieldwork and interviews with theatre practitioners in Beijing and Shanghai Through an examination of the similarities and differences in dramaturgical practices across performing arts in China the book firmly positions Chinese dramaturgy within the broader currents of global theatre discourse This book is a unique cross cultural resource with practical insights and theoretical reflections of great value for academics scholars educators and practitioners in the fields of theatre studies dramaturgy cross cultural performance studies contemporary Chinese theatre and the global evolution of dramaturgy Cinema and Urban
