

DANGLING MODIFIER

A dangling modifier is a modifier (a word or a phrase) that doesn't modify anything in a sentence; it misses the word or words it intends to modify or can possibly modify.

(dangling modifier)

Having lost the job, the house had to be sold.

The house can't lose a job. Can it lose a job? It can't, right? And there is nothing else in the sentence that can be modified either.

Correction:

- Having lost the job, Max had to sell the house.

Here, we have added a noun (Max) that can be modified by the modifying phrase "having lost the job". It is Max who had lost the job.

- Since I had lost the job, the house had to be sold.

Here, we have changed the dangling modifier to an adverb clause. Now, it is working as the cause of the main clause.
