Ayoola,2012 Blazing the Path Fifty Years of Things Fall Apart is a collection of new perspectives on Chinua Achebe s Things Fall Apart a novel that was first published in 1958 and which has since become a classic of world literature. Aside from opening up the novel to new interpretive strategies of well established literary critics and clarifying some past ones, this collection of essays repositions Things Fall Apart as a literary piece with interdisciplinary and multidimensional appeal. The volume fulfills the objective of using the novel to interrogate the colonial and pre colonial African past with Nigeria's post modern present and projects the country into a future that looks to literature for a deeper understanding of where Nigeria is as a citizen of an emerging global village.
