Carcase for Hounds, David Livingstone: The Wayward Vagabond in Africa N. Kahende, 2019-06-25. David Livingstone's The Wayward Vagabond in Africa is an expression of doubt about the reason d'être concerning the 19th Century explorers and missionaries in Africa. Led by David Livingstone, the Scottish explorer and missionary, they are said to have come to civilise backward Africans, which the author creatively reimagines, arguing that it is far from the truth. Instead, their actions gave impetus to colonialism proper. In this book, the omniscient narrator Everywhere is God's special envoy, mandated to witness history with far-reaching consequences for humanity. His investigation is to help nail David Livingstone on Judgment Day, much the same way St Peter chronicles events in the Book of Life. Read about how Everywhere, the spirit, rides on wind, walks on water, enters into his characters' stream of consciousness and even discerns how they interpret the world around them. The novel retraces Livingstone's early life from his deprived childhood in Blantyre, Scotland, his ideological evolution and training in London, and his dramatic sojourn in Monomotapa kingdom, which he half-believes is his destiny. The satirical tone in the novel aptly captures that delusional aspect of Livingstone's God-ordained mission to the world.

Urban Obsessions, Urban Fears John Roger Kurtz, 1998. Kurtz's analysis of the development of the Kenyan novel in English emphasizes the historical contingencies affecting the production of literature in Kenya and how succeeding generations have drawn from and expanded the thematic repertoire established by the first generation of works in the 1960s. He explores the relationship between the novel and the city and how obsessions and fears about urbanization have been expressed and represented through different generations of Kenyan writers. Kurtz has also put together the first annotated bibliography of all the Anglophone Kenyan novels that have appeared since Ngugi wa Thiong'o wrote Weep Not Child. Ngugi's Weep Not Child made an immediate impact on its publication in 1964. Since then, hundreds of novels by Kenyans have been published. This is a comprehensive introduction to the postcolonial novel in English. Three broad areas are identified: the first generation of the sixties, the golden age of the seventies, and the years after Kenyatta in the 80s and 90s. A unifying feature is an uneasy but marked emphasis on the city, particularly Nairobi. The city is used by novelists as both the site and the symbol for a range of obsessions and fears about postcolonial society.

There is particular emphasis on the changing ways in which the city has been portrayed since Ngugi's first novel the relation of popular literature to the city the portrayal of women in the city and the special status of Meja Mwangi's urban novels
