documents and records and freedom of contract in respect of volume contracts and continuous character of the obligation of seaworthiness and limits of liability and rights during transit and recovery of loss of and damage to goods caused by accidents of navigation and jurisdiction and arbitration and role of subcontracted carriers both on sea and inland and role of warehouses transport terminals and stevedoring companies and risks and contract practices of lenders and interests of freight forwarders cargo insurers and liability insurers and prevention of maritime fraud The authors provide a crystal clear picture that allows the reader to appreciate the balanced way in which the interests of the various stakeholders are addressed by the Rules and the greater legal certainty for each party and its legal position the freedom to extend the Rules by contract to the whole transport operation the clear legal basis for the use of electronic transport records and the flexibility with which the Rules have left room for evolving trade practices It will be of immeasurable value to practitioners and all parties interested in understanding how the new Convention operates and how the provisions are intended to be applied after the Convention comes into force Uniform Laws Annotated: Uniform commercial code forms and materials ,2007
