Maxwell's Understanding Environmental Health: How We Live in the World Deborah Alma Falta, 2021-03-25

Offering a unique approach to presenting environmental health Maxwell's Understanding Environmental Health How We Live in the World Third Edition is structured around the choices we make as individuals that result in environmental hazards. By detailing the hazards of energy production, industry, food production, and our modern lifestyle in the context of our place within the local and global community, new author Deborah Falta updates and builds on Maxwell's comprehensive overview of environmental health by telling a connected narrative that makes the text both engaging and accessible to a broad range of students with a variety of scientific backgrounds. Awarded first place in the 2021 AJN Book of the Year Awards in the Environmental Health category. Read the press release. 15 new case studies addressing contemporary issues from plastic recycling to sustainably feeding a growing world population. New chapter detailing the societal and economic factors related to managing environmental risks. More comprehensive discussion of occupational health in the context of producing manufactured goods. New full color design that brings charts, graphs, and photos to life. Updated appendix includes a new overview of the U.S. regulatory framework for environmental health. Navigate eBook Access enabling you to read your digital textbook online or offline on computers, tablets, and mobile devices. Watch recording of her recent webinar Making Environmental Health Resonate for Today's Students to learn how Dr. Falta engages her students in environmental health topics through surveys, case studies, and more. Undergraduate and graduate Environmental Health courses in Public Health programs as well as departments of Environmental Science, Health Sciences, and Public Policy. 2022. 328 pages.

Understanding Environmental Health: How We Live in the World Maxwell, 2008-08-25. This text takes a unique approach to presenting environmental health to students. Rather than being organized around the traditional regulatory fields (air pollution, hazardous wastes, etc.) this book is structured around the things we do as individuals and societies that result in environmental health hazards. The author details the hazards of energy production, industry, food production, and the modern lifestyle while exploring our place within the global community. The book is an excellent introduction to environmental health for students of public health and health science.
