Development As Freedom Pdf:

Development as Freedom Amartya Sen, 2011-05-25 By the winner of the 1988 Nobel Prize in Economics an essential and paradigm altering framework for understanding economic development for both rich and poor in the twenty first century Freedom Sen argues is both the end and most efficient means of sustaining economic life and the key to securing the general welfare of the world s entire population Releasing the idea of individual freedom from association with any particular historical intellectual political or religious tradition Sen clearly demonstrates its current applicability and possibilities In the new global economy where despite unprecedented increases in overall opulence the contemporary world denies elementary freedoms to vast numbers perhaps even the majority of people he concludes it is still possible to practically and optimistically restrain a sense of social accountability Development as Freedom is essential reading The Vision of Catholic Social Thought Meghan J. Clark, 2014-04-01 The Vision of Catholic Social Thought traces the emergence of solidarity and human rights as critical theological and philosophical pillars of the anthropology and ethics foundational to the development of Catholic social teaching Meghan J Clark argues that the integration of human rights and the virtue of solidarity at the root of the Catholic social tradition are the unique contributions Catholic thought makes to contemporary debates in ethics political and philosophical theory Building upon the historical framework of the development of Catholic social thought drawing deeply from the papal encyclical tradition and the theological and ethical developments of Vatican II Clark forwards a constructive vision of virtue and social practice applying this critical question of human rights on the international stage

Women and Children as Victims and Offenders: Background, Prevention, Reintegration Helmut Kury, Sławomir Redo, Evelyn Shea, 2016-06-01 This work compiles experiences and lessons learned in meeting the unique needs of women and children regarding crime prevention and criminal justice in particular the treatment and social reintegration of offenders and serves as a cross disciplinary work for academic and policy making analyses and follow up in developing and developed countries Furthermore it argues for a more humane and effective approach to countering delinquency and crime among future generations In a world where development positively depends on the rule of law and the related investment security two global trends may chart the course of development urbanization and education Urbanization will globalize the concepts of justice and fairness education will be dominated by the urban mindset and digital service economy just as a culture of lawfulness will This work looks at crime prevention education as an investment in the sustainable quality of life of succeeding generations and at those who pursue such crime prevention as the providers of much needed skills in the educational portfolio Adopting a reformist approach this work collects articles with findings and recommendations that may be relevant to domestic and international policymaking including the United Nations Studies and their educational value for the welfare of coming generations The books address the relevant United Nations ideas by combining them with academic approaches Guided by the Editors respective fields of expertise and in full recognition of academic freedom and organized scepticism it includes contributions by lawyers criminologists sociologists and other eminent experts seeking to bridge the gap between academic and policy perspectives as appropriate against the international background including the United Nations developments The first volume opens with a foreword by Marta Santos Pais the United Nations Special Representative of the Secretary General on Violence against Children and a general introduction by the editors Part I provides an overview of United Nations principles for crime prevention and the treatment of women and children Part II concentrates on education and the social learning of children and adolescents The importance of quality education is stressed as is its impact on the behaviour of children of all ages It also includes a discussion of the factors that still hinder access to good schooling in many parts of the world Part III presents international research findings on children juveniles and women both as victims and offenders Statistics show overwhelmingly that these groups are more often victims than offenders Our Rights, Our Information ,2008

Public Procurement and Aid Effectiveness Annamaria La Chimia,Peter Trepte,2019-08-08 This edited collection fills a significant gap in the literature by gathering contributions from the most prominent academics and practitioners of aid and procurement It explores the economic political and legal relationship between procurement and aid effectiveness in developing countries and takes stock of current debates in the field More specifically the contributions analyse the failures and successes of current initiatives to foster effectiveness and streamline the aid procurement process and address current themes emerging in the literature related to development procurement and aid success A pivotal and timely publication Public Procurement and Aid Effectiveness will be of interest to a varied and multicultural international audience and a wide range of actors working on aid effectiveness development procurement and good governance initiatives in both donor and beneficiary countries Region-Building in Southern Africa Chris Saunders,Gwinyayi Albert Dzinesa,Dawn Nagar,2013-07-04 How successful have Southern African states been in dealing with the major issues that have faced the region in recent years What could be done to produce more cohesive and effective region building in Southern Africa In this original and wide ranging volume which draws on an interdisciplinary team of mainly African and African based specialists the key political socio economic and security challenges facing Southern Africa today are addressed These include the various issues confronting the Southern African Development Community SADC and its institutions such as HIV AIDS migration and xenophobia land grabbing and climate change and the role of the main external actors involved with the region including the United Nations the European Union the United States and China The book also looks at the Southern African Customs Union and Southern African Development Finance Institutions including the Development Bank of Southern Africa and Industrial Development Corporation and issues of gender and peacebuilding In doing so the book goes to the heart of analyzing the effectiveness of SADC and other regional organisation suggesting how region building in Southern Africa may be compared with similar attempts elsewhere in Africa and other parts of the world Starvation as a Weapon Simone Hutter,2015-09-29 In Starvation as a Weapon Simone Hutter explores within the framework of international law the legality of using deliberate starvation as a means to an end A close look at modern famine shows that in many cases food scarcity is not the product of coincidence but a side effect or result of a deliberate strategy Starvation is an efficient instrument when used to exert pressure and power in times of war and peace Simone Hutter demonstrates how international human rights law and international humanitarian law prevent deliberate starvation as a means of achieving political goals She focuses on highly divisive and under discussed instances in which states deploy deliberate starvation domestically i e within the state s own national territory

The brazilian CFIA model as a mechanism for enhancing protection and respect for socio-economic rights Marina Martins Martes,2023-09-28 This research evaluates whether the new model of investment agreement developed by Brazil CFIA is a mechanism for enhancing protection and respect for social and economic rights The research starts by exploring the origins of investment treaties their development and main characteristics It examines why investment treaties and socio economic rights are related by mapping cases in which investment treaties have already impaired the protection of such rights The research then analyzes how these two issues shall be jointly handled It considers international organizations initiatives to regulate business and human rights and investment treaties frameworks that foster sustainable development as well as new investment agreements models developed by different countries and then suggests criteria for evaluating whether an investment treaty is adequate from the socio economic rights standpoint Finally this research investigates the CFIA model brings a brief historical overview evaluates CFIA s wording and examines how some CFIA s institutional mechanisms consider corporate social responsibility issues In conclusion this research asserts that the CFIA model can be a mechanism for enhancing protection and respect for socio economic rights but some concerns particularly related to safeguarding States regulatory space and providing for stronger obligations to investors and States to protect human rights need to be addressed

Freedoms and Solidarities Judith R. Blau,Alberto Moncada,2007 Much has been written about growing global disparities in wealth and resources how global capitalism has adversely affected human populations and the environment and the dangers that a unipolar world order poses to peace and global pluralism After summarizing the evidence for these arguments the authors develop two main themes first that there is a growing transformative peoples movement that challenges global capitalism and the imperial superpower and second there is an extraordinary worldwide shift underway in human consciousness that accompanies practical global interdependencies and connectedness The authors provide evidence for an emerging foundation of what philosopher Peter Singer describes as a one world ethic and they show how this ethic is closely connected with what is called the human rights revolution They compare the western liberal conception of freedom with conceptions of freedom found in the writings of Jean Paul Sartre and Amartya Sen and draw from Hannah Arendt s The Human Condition to clarify that freedom has both collective and individual dimensions They build on these foundations to address the following topics positive human rights collective goods cosmopolitanism social and cultural pluralism and they pose alternatives to capitalism and liberal democracy The authors work in the tradition of critical social science but go beyond that to encourage readers to engage in emancipatory projects and utopian thinking The worlds peoples face too many terrifying prospects not to engage such projects and thinking
