Davies, 2013-12-19 First Published in 2000 In this title the author argues that drug users end up in gaol for many reasons but in the most general terms they divide the drug using part of a prison population along three lines Those incarcerated because of their use or possession of drugs with intent to supply those gaol for offences other than drug use but who happen to be involved in drug use and those who acquired their drug habit whilst in gaol They argue that whilst prisons offer the opportunity to influence drug habits in a positive way it can also produce exactly the opposite effect
