Urban Governance in Canada Katherine A. Graham, Susan D. Phillips, Allan M. Maslove, 1998

Municipal Reform in Canada Joseph Garcea, Edward C. LeSage, 2005 This book presents an analysis of the purposes processes politics and outcomes of reform for each of the provinces and the northern territories These analyses reveal that reforms during this turn of the millennium period have reconfigured and in some cases re empowered municipal governance and shifted the balance of roles responsibilities and relationships among city and regional municipal governments and between them and their respective provincial and territorial governments The reform process however has not gone so far as to reinvent municipal governance and is not likely to in the foreseeable future Indeed the extent of change in recent years in many jurisdictions has brought about a degree of reform fatigue so that the principle actors in provincial municipal politics may be reticent to pursue new initiatives in the near future
