Experiments in Agency Supriya Baily, Farnoosh Shahrokhi, Tami Carsillo, 2017-04-13 This book is about teacher agency and leadership, but it is also an experiment in shifting the balance of power in research and writing. It is about making accessible the process of academic publishing in a way that capitalizes on the knowledge of people in diverse contexts and with novice eyes, and is an experiment in sharing academic writing between master teachers and doctoral students. It is also a book on the power of action research and the belief we have as teacher educators about the transformative power of teachers in their own classrooms. Pairing master teachers from ten countries who were part of the Teaching Excellence and Achievement Program with graduate students, this book provides a framework to decolonize research practices in an effort to re-envision research methodologies on a global scale. The book also provides a tangible way to see how research processes support local transformation and direct engagement of those at the margins to play a greater role in the production of scholarly knowledge. The cross-national scope of this book, with authors working in classrooms in countries as diverse as Turkey, Chile, and Bangladesh, coupled with the work of novice US-based scholars to engage in the conceptualizing, researching, data analysis, and writing of chapters, speaks to the importance of new voices in the field of research. Additionally, the combination of teacher research projects in the classroom juxtaposed with chapters that speak to the process of teacher research in a global context provides both theoretical and empirical foundations for teacher research.

Success on your Certificate Course in English Language Teaching Caroline Brandt, 2006-07-04 Extremely comprehensive and well-written in terms of style, accessible to the reader, but intelligent and expressing some fairly subtle concepts. Would that more ELT practitioners could do the same. Certainly a good read for those thinking about and also those engaged in initial training or even post-initial training stage.

Jenny Pugsley, Head of TESOL, Trinity College London. It's essential reading, whether you are simply curious about what is involved in training in ELT, need advice on choosing the right course, have already enrolled and want to make the most of your course, or are a new teacher just starting out. It's a book I wish I'd had when I was starting out in my ELT career, and that I wish had been available to many of the course participants I have tutored.

Lyn Strutt, ELT author and Chair of the British Council Families Association. Each year, thousands of people all over the world take one of the hundreds of available short pre-service courses that lead to the award of a certificate in English Language Teaching ELT or Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages TESOL Caroline Brandt's book is an invaluable guide to anyone thinking of enrolling on one of these courses. With a clear and concise structure that follows your general interest in TESOL right through to the intricacies of the course itself, it can be used from initial research stages to final qualifications and beyond. Brandt's decades of experience in this field across the globe shine through. Chapters include introducing English Language Teaching, becoming qualified, knowing your certificate course, getting started, learning, working together, being qualified. Throughout the book, there are snapshots of students' experiences in their own words and summaries of key points for you to take with you whether into the next stage of learning or the next day's teaching. The chapters are stand-alone resources as well as the building blocks to becoming a fully qualified English Language teacher. The book is supported by a companion website which provides quizzes to test understanding of each chapter, lesson plan proformas, a full glossary, and annotated website links. Beginner's
