Coping with a Parent Who Overdrinks Michelle Shreeve,2025-04-01 Teenagers living with a parent who overdrinks often feel isolated and powerless but this book shows that they are not alone by sharing the stories of other teenagers and offering expert advice alongside helpful resources support and hope A Communion of Friendship Beth Daniell,2003-04-03 Drawing on interviews and an array of scholarly work Beth Daniell maps out the relations of literacy and spirituality in A Communion of Friendship Literacy Spiritual Practice and Women in Recovery Daniell tells the story of a group of women in Mountain City who use reading and writing in their search for spiritual growth Diverse in socioeconomic status the Mountain City women are or have been married to alcoholics In Al Anon they use literacy to practice the Twelve Steps of Alcoholics Anonymous in order to find spiritual solutions to their problems In addition Daniell demonstrates that in the lives of these women reading writing and speaking are intertwined embedded in one another in rich and complex ways For the women private literate practice is of the utmost importance because it aids the development and empowerment of the self These women engage in literate practices in order to grow spiritually and emotionally to live more self aware lives to attain personal power to find or make meaning for themselves and to create community By looking at the changes in the women s reading Daniell shows that Al Anon doctrine particularly its oral instruction serves as an interpretive tool This discussion points out the subtle but profound transformations in these women s lives in order to call for an inclusive notion of politics Foregrounding the women s voices A Communion of Friendship addresses a number of issues important in composition studies and reading instruction This study examines the meaning of literacy within one specific community with implications both for pedagogy and for empirical research in composition inside and outside the academy Birth of Uncool Madeline Walker,2014-04-01 Embrace Your Uncool A Poetry Collection for the Imperfectly Authentic Birth of the Uncool is an eclectic collection of poems that celebrates the beauty of imperfection and the power of vulnerability Madeline Walker invites you on an introspective journey through motherhood childhood recovery faith and love all while embracing the parts of ourselves we often try to hide This collection is for anyone who has ever felt awkward sentimental or vulnerable Walker s accessible verse offers a fresh perspective on finding meaning in everyday life and accepting ourselves flaws and all Discover a voice that resonates with honesty humor and a touch of melancholy empowering you to embrace your own unique brand of uncool It Takes a Family Debra Jay,2021-05-04 This second edition of the groundbreaking book by acclaimed interventionist and educator Debra Jay celebrates the unique and powerful role families play in successful long term recovery from addiction

Readers receive tips tools and a framework for pursuing the proven path of Structured Family Recovery As a companion to Love First the classic guide to family intervention It Takes a Family delivers a proven method for families and friends to step beyond the initial intervention and reinvent their relationships as part of a family recovery team In straightforward compassionate language Debra Jay offers readers a structured model that shows family members and friends how they can work together to overcome the obstacles many people with addiction face in their initial recovery Through easy to follow strategies and exercises family members learn about and address the challenges of enabling denial and pain while developing their communication skills and embracing the joy that comes from healthier and happier relationships Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1997 Al-Anon Narratives Grazyna Zajdow,2002-08-30 According to the author in Australia men drink alcohol as a mark of masculinity and women take care of drinking men as a part of normative femininity And while research on alcoholics and alcoholism is common very few studies consider the lives of the women who are married to alcoholics Here Zajdow details and explores the lives of such women who belong to Al Anon where they may share their experiences and offer their stories in a nonthreatening and supportive environment The author presents the narratives of these women in the context of her analysis of the self help group to demonstrate how people construct and reconstruct their lives as coherent stories about themselves and to show how these self stories can be changed and reconceptualized within the context of the group Unique in its examination of self stories offered within a self help group this book challenges sociological knowledge about the way these mutual aid groups operate as communities of interest and help Zajdow begins by laying the groundwork through a discussion of the professional and lay discourses on women s relationships to alcoholic men She then provides the basis for using self stories to examine a group of people the individuals in the group and the behavior of the group in general A history of Al Anon as a self help group is also detailed and the author compares the Australian meetings to meetings in other parts of the world The stories themselves are then examined and discussed in terms of how they relate to group processes and individual change through Al Anon Tracing the way that these women move from a place of despair to one of hope and meaningful change this also represents a sociological exploration of gender families and communities One Day at a Time in Al-Anon Al-Anon Family Group Headquarters, Inc,1972 Alcoholism is a family illness and changed attitudes can aid recovery This daily readings guide for family and friends of alcoholics provides meditations and reminder and visualizations that can provide a measure of comfort serenity and a sense of achievement Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001 Twelve Step Programs Ann Marie Minnick,1997-11-30 Twelve Step Programs are significant features in the American landscape Their popularity compels us to take them seriously This book studies one such program Al Anon which was founded in 1951 by wives of alcoholics who were struggling with the effects of alcoholism on themselves and their families In the 1990s its scope was broadened to include husbands grown children lovers friends and anyone else affected by another s drinking or chemical use This study used an ethnographic approach it reveals that Al Anon and similar groups act as sites of spiritual renewal and moral reconstruction for primarily white middle class middle aged Protestant Americans who report experiencing a crisis of identity Investigating Twelve Step Programs lends further insight into the cultural crisis affecting many Americans as well as the strategies some have found to make sense of their lives
