Globalization George Ritzer, Paul Dean, 2014-11-19 Updated to reflect recent global developments the second edition of Globalization A Basic Text presents an up to date introduction to major trends and topics relating to globalization studies Features updates and revisions in its accessible introduction to key theories and major topics in globalization Includes an enhanced emphasis on issues relating to global governance emerging technology global flows of people human trafficking global justice movements and global environmental sustainability Utilizes a unique set of metaphors to introduce and explain the highly complex nature of globalization in an engaging and understandable manner Offers an interdisciplinary approach to globalization by drawing from fields that include sociology global political economy political science international relations geography and anthropology Written by an internationally recognized and experienced author team li Globalization George Ritzer, 2011-01-11 Essentials of Globalization is a highly useful compact edition of the author's full scale textbook Globalization A Basic Text The Essentials is written in a style accessible to undergraduates and draws on both academic and popular sources in its explanations A highly useful compact version of Globalization A Basic Text which contains the all major areas in an accessible and affordable format for undergraduate students Develops a unique perspective on globalization early in the book and uses it throughout to orient and organize discussion of a wide range of topics and parts of the world Integrated use of a wide array of sources including empirical research theories newspaper and magazine articles monographs and popular books Designed to work as a basic text in globalization courses or as a supplementary text in courses that include globalization as one of several topics Globalization Essentials + Readings in Globalization George Ritzer, 2016-11-30 A two book set that features a globalization text and associated readings Essentials of Globalization is a social science text in an accessible format for undergraduates It examines globalization discussing a range of topics in various parts of the world The book incorporates an array of sources including empirical research Readings in Globalization is an anthology that presents the main concepts of globalization along with key debates Excerpts are used to further illustrate ideas within material that suits the undergraduate level The McDonaldization of Society George Ritzer, 2018-01-12 The book that made McDonaldization part of the lexicon of contemporary sociological theory read by hundreds of thousands of students is now in its Ninth Edition George Ritzer's seminal work of critical sociology The McDonaldization of Society continues to stand as one of the pillars of modern day sociological thought Building on the argument that that the fast food restaurant has become the model for the rationalization process today this book links theory to contemporary life in a globalized world and resonates with students in a way that few other books do Ritzer opens students eyes to many current issues and shows how McDonaldization's principles apply to other settings especially in the areas of consumption and globalization Through vivid story telling prose Ritzer provides an insightful introduction to this fascinating topic and aids students critical development This new edition has been fully updated to include a new focus on

McDonaldization in the digital world Yearning for (Dis)Connections Hassan Yosimbom,2023-09-30 In a nuanced consideration of the Cameroonian experience Yearning for Dis Connections makes critical interventions into debates about coexistence citizenship identity formation and performance democracy and modernity in Cameroon The essays in the book ranges across Francophone and Anglophone Cameroons to provide a challenging assessment of the common ways of writing and thinking for and of and about the Cameroonian world The book criticises the blinders of Cameroon s Francophonecentred leadership analysing its failure to heed Anglophone Cameroon s ontological and epistemological critiques of Cameroon s ongoing exclusions masked by pretences of a Francophone universalism Yosimbom uses the works of Nyamnjoh Ndi Besong and Takwi to explore how Cameroonian worlds are on the move of and for identity negotiations He also explores how the uneven development of those Cameroonian worlds has been creating growing gaps within and among regions while at the same time Francophonising Anglophones and Anglophonising Francophones through four fold processes of complementarities continuity and discontinuity diachrony and synchrony The book demonstrates that persistent Francophone hegemony and resurgent Anglophone nationalism often fail to realise that all Cameroonians have been shuffled like a pack of cards that cultures are formed through complex dialogues and interactions with other cultures that the boundaries of cultures are fluid porous and contested that identities are multiple and layered in complex pluralist democratic societies and that there is need for public recognition of cultural and identity specificities in ways that do not deny their fluidity nimbleness and incompleteness Commodified Health Care and Lay Catholic Social Spirituality Vivencio Ballano,2025-07-01 This book establishes a lay social spirituality for health care practitioners that pursues the Catholic Church s social teachings on the preferential option for the poor structural sin and health care reform to address today s commodification of the health care system where maximizing profit and patient s capacity to pay become the primary consideration Applying a sociotheological approach that combines the perspectives of modern sociology Catholic social doctrines and Pope Francis s inductive synodal theology as well as drawing from secondary literature media reports and church documents it argues for the necessity of a holistic interdisciplinary and synodal lay Catholic social spirituality that is informed by Pope Francis s synodality Presenting sociological research for health care practitioners to uphold options for the poor in public health it envisions a lay spirituality that participates in civil society s health care reform agenda at the macro level and practices Christian and Ignatian discernment at the micro level as its main behavioral components This book appeals to Christian health care actors entrepreneurs and spiritual directors as well as scholars and students in sociology religion moral theology bioethics and spirituality Persian Literature as World Literature Mostafa Abedinifard,Omid Azadibougar,Amirhossein Vafa,2021-07-15 Confronting nationalistic and nativist interpreting practices in Persianate literary scholarship Persian Literature as World Literature makes a case for reading these literatures as world literature as transnational worldly texts that expand beyond local and national penchants Working through an idea of world literature that is both cosmopolitan and critical of any monologic view on globalization the contributors to this volume revisit the early and contemporary circulation of Persianate literatures across neighboring and distant cultures and seek innovative ways of developing a transnational Persian literary studies engaging in constructive dialogues with the global forces surrounding and shaping Persianate societies and cultures Collection of the Basic Texts of the International Telecommunication Union International Telecommunication Union.
