Social Media Literacy Primer:

Digital Literacy Susan Wiesinger, Ralph Beliveau, 2023 The second edition of Digital Literacy provides a highly focused exploration of key critical concepts in understanding digital media in a clear engaging and accessible way for an introductory audience Core to the books approach is its comparison of digital literacy perspectives across different cultures highlighting the significant disparity in digital privacy and regulation of technology companies across countries to expand on the discourse surrounding modern digital engagement Prescient issues are examined in depth such as decline of traditional media rise of Big Tech and erosion of privacy and democratic ideals Important themes explored in chapters across the book include digital Identity the internet as infrastructure the web as a collaborative tool and domestic and global digital divides The new edition also explores digital literacy and the pandemic as well as the growing body of research around the effects and impact of the digital technologies we use every day There are also useful Applied Skills Appendices outlining core areas of digital practice The text is an ideal resource for students and scholars of mass communication media literacy digital information literacy and digital technology courses as well as for all those wanting to know more about the deep on going impact of communication technologies on our lives

My Phone Lies to Me Alexandra Juhasz, 2022 This book of poems about fake news written by diverse project participants is foremost an invitation and invocation for readers to participate with others in an experiment in knowing and working differently with the internet Fake News Poetry Workshops Between 2018 and 2020 Alexandra Juhasz directed more than twenty of these workshops around the world and these are ongoing beyond the confines of this book Each differs in form and structure but participants are always asked to attend to research their own knowledge about the internet and social media and what they can learn from their workshop and previous ones My Phone Lies to Me shares the poems created in the workshops As moving eloquent and useful as they may be and you are invited to indulge in and learn from them enjoying and learning from the poems is only a small part of this book s project Four short essays two by Juhasz with a foreword and afterword by critical internet scholars Tara McPherson and Margaret Rhee respectively introduce and situate the project s processes of radical digital media You can learn what Fake News Poetry Workshops make do and believe in as well as how to collaborate with others to create your own Fake News Poetry Workshops are one way to counter dominant and dominating internet modes and values to fight the corrupt ways of being and knowing that use digital media to create fuel and weaponize fake news The project verifies good news in the face of fake news that we can gather together in our many local places and use analog structures about digital things and ways to generate hold and share art answers to phony questions

Fake News in Context Lesley S. J. Farmer, 2020-12-17 Fake News in Context defines fake news and sets it within a historical and international context Helping readers to become more skilled at detecting misinformation the book also demonstrates how such knowledge can be leveraged to facilitate more effective engagement in civic education Distinguishing between fake news and other forms of misinformation the book explains the complete communication cycle of fake news how and why it is created disseminated and accessed The book then explains the physical and psychological reasons why people believe fake news Providing generic methods for identifying fake news Farmer also explains the use of fact checking tools and automated algorithms The book then details how various literacies including news media visual information digital and data offer unique concepts and skills that can help interpret fake news Arguing that individuals and groups can respond and counter fake news which leads to civic engagement and digital citizenship the book concludes by providing strategies for instruction and tips for collaborating with librarians Including a range of international examples Fake News in Context will be of interest to teaching faculty and students of library and information science communication studies media studies politics and journalism Librarians and information professionals will also find a valuable resource in this book

eGirls eCitizens is a landmark work that explores the many forces that shape girls and young women's experiences of privacy identity and equality in our digitally networked society Drawing on the multi disciplinary expertise of a remarkable team of leading Canadian and international scholars as well as Canada's foremost digital literacy organization MediaSmarts this collection presents the complex realities of digitized communications for girls and young women as revealed through the findings of The eGirls Project www.egirlsproject.ca and other important research initiatives Aimed at moving dialogues on scholarship and policy around girls and technology away from established binaries of good vs bad or risk vs opportunity these seminal contributions explore the interplay of factors that shape online environments characterized by a gendered gaze and too often punctuated by sexualized violence Perhaps most importantly this collection offers first hand perspectives collected from girls and young women themselves providing a unique window on what it is to be a girl in today's digitized society
