Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications, 1994 Monthly Catalogue, United States Public Documents, 1994 Drugs, Race, and the Politics of Modern Slavery Law Insa Lee Koch, 2026-01-12 As the Black Lives Matter movement highlights the legacies of transatlantic slavery and racial empire the British state has launched a new moral crusade the fight against modern slavery Enshrined in the Modern Slavery Act 2015 this agenda no longer treats modern slavery solely as a transnational crime but also as a domestic threat occurring within Britain's borders Today the most frequently identified slaves are boys and young men from the country's deindustrialised working class and multi racial neighbourhoods Once criminalised under the war on gangs they are now reframed as victims of criminal exploitation and trafficking in regional drug distribution networks known as county lines Drugs Race and the Politics of Modern Slavery Law examines what happens when communities once viewed as enemies of the system are redefined as legal victims Grounded in the lived experiences of young drug dealers and their families voices rarely heard in law Insa Lee Koch reveals how state protection often functions as a form of control Across policing government offices and courtrooms efforts to protect the vulnerable ignore the structural dispossession and state racism that these communities face Koch powerfully shows how family members who advocate for their children not only face bureaucratic hurdles but also find themselves silenced even criminalized for trying to make alternative stories heard Drugs Race and the Politics of Modern Slavery Law argues that the modern slavery agenda is far from an unqualified good As the law expands its definition of victimhood it simultaneously strengthens the state's punitive powers deepens racial injustice amidst a deepening socio economic crisis and revives colonial logics of redemption These logics recast Black and racialised working class communities as both slaves and their masters reviving a powerful enemy within and with devastating consequences for those targeted and their families Urgent and innovative this book is a must read for academics lawyers practitioners and activists seeking to understand how imperial legacies remain central to policies that claim to further progressive and social justice agendas This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 International licence It is free to read on Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations Power and Feminist Agency in Capitalism Claudia Leeb, 2017 Power and Feminist Agency in Capitalism develops the idea of the political subject in outline to find solutions to the dilemmas inherent in the idea of the political subject and provide answers to the when who how and what of socio political change Sport Across Asia Katrin Bromber, Birgit Krawietz, Joseph Maguire, 2013 This book is designed to reflect both our current knowledge regarding sport globalisation and encounters with several important post colonial or non western societies and to draw together scholars from a range of different disciplines Case studies of cultural encounters in Central South East Asia Asia Minor and the Arabian peninsula capture the paradoxical processes of emulation resistance and transformation that are at work in the diffusion and development of sport and body cultures These case studies bring together insights from anthropology cultural studies geography history law sociology various area and post colonial studies

Aspect and Argument Structure in Modern Scottish Gaelic Gillian Catriona Ramchand,1993 The Co-operative College and a Century of Social Change Tom Woodin,Keith Vernon,Linda Shaw,2025-02-24 This open access book explores the Co operative College s distinctive adult educational tradition over the past century as it provided education for co operative leaders employees and members in addition to developing a range of wider educational initiatives and ideas internationally The Co operative College is a British educational charity established in 1919 founded on co operative principles It played a crucial role in co operative education in the British Empire and subsequently in the independent nations In doing so it brought together vocational and liberal education as well as educating members as part of a movement that fostered significant social change It draws on original archival research at the National Co operative Archive in Manchester as well as other material at the National Archives Bishopsgate Institute and the British Library Furthermore the rich archives of the National Co operative Archive allow for the development of a rich visual history of the movement to be explored Early Psychological Research Contributions from Women of Color, Volume 2 Rihana Shiri Mason,Jon E. Grahe,Michelle L. Ceynar,2024-07-29 This volume serves as a companion to Early Psychological Research Contributions from Women of Color Volume I It focuses on the dissertations of 20 builders women of color who earned their doctoral degrees in psychology prior to 1990 and who were leaders in the field through their leadership or innovation An introductory chapter bridges the two volumes Each subsequent chapter summarizes and examines a dissertation using a consistent format including a biographical sketch of the builder with an emphasis on her significant contribution to an organization or innovation that moved the field forward a summary of the dissertation a reproducibility critique of the dissertation and an alternative framework section that analyzes the dissertation from a modern theoretical perspective or methodological approach e g feminist theory liberation psychology mestiza consciousness etc The topics cover the breadth of the discipline of psychology including physiological cognitive developmental social and clinical Some topics are also relevant to business education medicine and social work The varying nature of these dissertations allows the book to be used to augment coursework either as a complete collection or as individual chapters This volume is intended for both instructors and students The course activities provide examples of how to integrate key aspects of the dissertation research into the classroom The volume was written with upper level undergraduate students in mind so that it could be used across the psychology curriculum but the editors envision this book as a potential graduate level text as well Transcending Equality, Diversity and Inclusion at Work Marguerite L Weber,Hugo Gaggiotti,2024-06-07 The book reflects on ways of transcending Equality Diversity and Inclusion EDI by establishing a dialogue between the professional experience of the authors and experts from academia and practitioners from financial services and executive search The book emphasises the link and impact between what is taught and what is learned about EDI and how this reflects on later choices in career and workplace

status The book offers a critical and global perspective emphasizing the multilocality and intersectionality dimension of diversity and unpicks key insights from different conceptualizations like class gender and postcolonialism and their relationship with the current paradigm of diversity and how people identify and communicate With an extensive collection of testimonies and invitations for reflection the book doesn't limit the analysis to the influences of historical power relations in the workplace but investigates at what stage multicultural power structures start developing a compulsory inclination to create differences and how this can influence hiring decision making and management in the workplace In the book academics and practitioners provide illumination and insights gleaned from their own personal experiences and perspectives Whilst the research targeted financial services and executive search the book's findings will appeal globally to individuals of all age groups regardless of educational status seniority or in which industry they are employed particularly those who are aware of how each one expresses similarity and differences sometimes in not obvious ways
