Through a Vegan Studies Lens Laura Wright, 2019-02-20 Interest in the vegan studies field continues to grow as veganism has become increasingly visible via celebrity endorsements and universally acknowledged health benefits and veganism and vegan characters are increasingly present in works of art and literature Through a Vegan Studies Lens broadens the scope of vegan studies by engaging in the mainstream discourse found in a wide variety of contemporary works of literature popular cultural representations advertising and news media Veganism is a practice that allows for environmentally responsible consumer choices that are viewed particularly in the West as oppositional to an economy that is largely dependent upon big agriculture This groundbreaking collection exposes this disruption critiques it and offers a new roadmap for navigating and reimaging popular culture representations on veganism These essays engage a wide variety of political historical and cultural issues including contemporary political and social circumstances emergent veganism in Eastern Europe climate change and the Syrian refugee crisis among other topics Through a Vegan Studies Lens significantly furthers the conversation of what a vegan studies perspective can be and illustrates why it should be an integral part of cultural studies and critical theory Vegan studies is inclusive refusing to ignore the displacement abuse and mistreatment of nonhuman animals It also looks to ignite conversations about cultural oppression

Contemporary Women Writers Look Back Alice Ridout,2011-01-13 Long before John Barth announced in his famous 1967 essay that late 20th century fiction was The Literature of Exhaustion authors have been retelling and recycling stories Barth was however right to identify in postmodern fiction a particular self consciousness about its belatedness at the end of a long literary tradition This book traces the move in contemporary women s writing from the self conscious ironic parodies of postmodernism to the nostalgic and historical turn of the 21st century It analyses how contemporary women writers deal with their literary inheritances offering an illuminating and provocative study of contemporary women writers re writings of previous texts and stories Through close readings of novels by key contemporary women writers including Toni Morrison Doris Lessing Margaret Atwood Zadie Smith Emma Tennant and Helen Fielding and of the ITV adaptation Lost in Austen Alice Ridout examines the politics of parody and nostalgia exploring the limitations and possibilities of both in the contexts of feminism and postcolonialism

The Flood Year 1927 Susan Scott Parrish,2018-12-04 A richly nuanced cultural history of the Great Mississippi flood The Great Mississippi Flood of 1927 was the most destructive river flood in U S history drowning crops and displacing more than half a million people across seven states It was also the first environmental disaster to be experienced virtually on a mass scale The Flood Year 1927 draws from newspapers radio broadcasts political cartoons vaudeville blues songs poetry and fiction to show how this event provoked an intense and lasting cultural response Americans at first seemed united in what Herbert Hoover called a great relief machine but deep rifts soon arose Southerners pointing to faulty federal levee design decried the attack of Yankee water The condition of African American evacuees prompted comparisons to slavery from pundits like W E B Du Bois and Ida B Wells And environmentalists like Gifford Pinchot called the flood the most colossal blunder in civilized history Susan Scott Parrish examines how these and other key figures from entertainers Will Rogers Miller Lyles and Bessie Smith to authors Sterling Brown William Faulkner and Richard Wright shaped public awareness and collective memory of the event The crises of this period that usually dominate historical accounts are war and financial collapse but The Flood Year 1927 allows us to assess how mediated environmental disasters became central to modern consciousness
