Gender and Care with Young Children B. Denise Hodgins,2019-04-08 This book is an exploration of how children educators and things become implicated in gendered caring practices Drawing on a collaborative research study with early childhood educators and young children the author examines what an engagement with human and non human relationality does to complicate conversations about gender and care By employing a feminist material analysis of early childhood education this book rethinks dominant Euro Western individualist pedagogies in order to reposition them within a relationality framework The analysis illuminates the political and ethical embeddedness of early childhood education and the understanding that gendering and caring emerge with in a complex web of many relations

Trust Inc. Matthew Yeomans,2018-04-25 We are entering the age of sustainability a business era where every company big and small must adapt its way of doing business to meet the realities of climate change a finite supply of natural resources evolving attitudes about inequality increasing digitisation and automation At the same time companies must meet the demands of consumers as they adjust to this rapidly changing way of life Supercharging this change in consumer behaviour is social media a communications revolution that is democratising and disrupting society in ways never seen before In this book Matthew Yeomans explains why embracing sustainability is key to helping companies articulate their sense of purpose and their reason to exist in a world where social media is eroding trust in all institutions The book shows how social media has made sustainability a mainstream concern for all society how it compelled companies to be more authentic and accountable in their actions and how it will continue to shape how companies communicate the importance of sustainability to all of society This book is a powerful guide for both communication and marketing professionals in business especially Fortune 500 FTSE 250 companies and agencies on how to use social media to communicate with their audiences and stakeholders in an authentic way It is also a guide text book for the growing field of sustainability communication in higher education
