Manning, 2003-05-15 World history has expanded dramatically in recent years primarily as a teaching field and increasingly as a research field Growing numbers of teachers and Ph Ds in history are required to teach the subject They must be current on topics from human evolution to industrial development in Song dynasty China to today s disease patterns and then link these disparate topics into a coherent course Numerous textbooks in print and in preparation summarize the field of world history at an introductory level But good teaching also requires advanced training for teachers and access to a stream of new research from scholars trained as world historians In this book Patrick Manning provides the first comprehensive overview of the academic field of world history He reviews patterns of research and debate and proposes guidelines for study by teachers and by researchers in world history

World History To-day Albert Edward McKinley, Arthur Charles Howland, Matthew Lincoln Dann, 1929 The Continuum History of Apocalypticism Bernard McGinn, John J. Collins, Stephen Stein, 2003-10-01 Apocalypticism has been the source of hope and courage for the oppressed but has also given rise on many occasions to fanaticism and intolerance The essays in this volume seek neither to apologize for the extravagance of apocalyptic thinkers nor to excuse the perverse actions of some of their followers Rather they strive to understand a powerful perhaps even indispensable element in the history of Western religions that has been the source of both good and evil and still is yet today The Editors The Continuum History of Apocalypticism is a 1 volume select edition of the 3 vol Encyclopedia of Apocalypticism first published in 1998 The main historical surveys that provided the spine of the Encyclopedia have been retained while essays of a thematic nature and a few whose subject matter is not central to the historical development have been omitted The work begins with 8 articles on The Origins of Apocalypticism in the Ancient World extending from ancient Near Eastern myth through the Old Testament to the Dead Sea Scrolls Jesus Paul and the Book of Revelation Next are 7 articles on Apocalyptic Traditions from Late Antiquity to ca 1800 C E including early Christian theology radical movements in the Middle Ages and both Jewish and Islamic apocalypticism in the classic period The final section Apocalypticism in the Modern Age includes 10 articles on apocalypticism in the Americas in Western and Eastern Europe and finally in modern Judaism and modern Islam

Greek and Roman Military Manuals James T. Chlup, Conor Whately, 2020-09-07 This volume explores the enigmatic primary source known as the ancient military manual In particular the volume explores the extent to which these diverse texts constitute a genre sometimes unsatisfactorily classified as technical literature and the degree to which they reflect the practice of warfare With contributions from a diverse group of scholars the chapters examine military manuals from early Archaic Greece to the Byzantine period covering a wide range of topics including readership siege warfare mercenaries defeat textual history and religion Coverage includes most of the major contemporary siege manual writers including Xenophon Frontinus Vegetius and Maurice Close examination of these texts serves to reveal the complex ways in which ancient Greeks Romans and Byzantines sought to understand better and impose order upon the seemingly irrational phenomenon known as war Providing insight into the multifaceted collection of texts that constituted military manuals this volume is a key resource for students and scholars of warfare and military literature in the classical and Byzantine periods
