Read the information about persuasive techniques. Then, complete the chart by identifying the persuasive technique used in the advertisement example or create an advertisement example for the given persuasive technique. You can create your own or provide an example from an advertisement you've seen.

To persuade means to communicate with the intent to cause a certain action to be taken. In order to sell products to consumers, companies use persuasive techniques to market their goods. The ability to recognize these techniques will help you avoid impulse buying and help you take control of your money. When you know how a product is being sold to you, you have power over the purchase.

Here are some of the most common persuasive techniques:

- Ethos: uses credibility and authority
- Logos: uses logic or reason
- Pathos (emotion): uses words that evoke strong feelings, rather than facts and evidence
- Ethical appeal: taps into people's values or moral standards
- Loaded language: uses words with strong positive or negative connotations to stir people's emotions
- Bandwagon: persuades people to do something by telling them that others are doing it too
- Plain folks: implies that ordinary people are on "our side"
- Snob appeal: implies an ordinary person can be rich and sophisticated
- Testimonial: features famous people describing their personal experience with a product or explaining why you should use a product
- Transfer: uses the names or pictures of famous people to convince you that a product will help you imitate the famous person in the ad

Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
