Sept. 2 – Revolution Brings Reform and Terror

- 1. What were the Rights of Man?
They established a political society, administered through a man.
- 2. Why did the National Assembly reject absolute monarchy?
They were tired of absolute monarchy, administrative and financial inefficiency led the French to demand a new form of government.
- 3. Why did Louis XVI sign the Declaration?
In 1789, faced with a great financial crisis, the king accepted the necessity of the Estates General as the nation's laws and gave a promise to the people. Louis did not believe in absolute monarchy, he wanted to give.
- 4. What government did the Legislative Assembly create?
The new government consisted of representatives and a king. The new government had the power to make laws and set taxes, including the national debt.
- 5. What steps did the government take to improve the lives of the poor government was formed?
The government made several laws to improve the lives of the poor. The government of France decided that food should be sold cheaply and that working hours should be reduced, especially during winter months, the working conditions.
- 6. How did the Legislative Assembly use rights from their general elections. What were the rights and what groups were?
The Legislative Assembly was made up of three groups: the Third Estate (the group in charge of government), the National Estate (the nobles), and the Clergy (the church). Each group had the same amount of voting power.
- 7. What were the principal demands?
The principal demands were the abolition of the national debt, the new form of government, the abolition of the monarchy and the king's power, and the abolition of the nobles' rights, which led to the revolution's immediate abolition.
- 8. Why were other European nations concerned about the events taking place in France?
