4. Why is a person who is painfully following his or her conscience not thereby virtuous, according to Aristotle? For Aristotle, would a moral ideal have to fight off temptation and struggle to be good?
5. If you have the misfortune to be brought up rude, inconsiderate and quarrelsome, is there any hope for you? According to Aristotle, if there is hope, what principle or people can help you?
6. "The excellence of the eye, for instance, makes both the eye good and its work also: for by the excellence of the eye we see well." What is the excellence of Man (Nicomachean Ethics)?

10. One philosopher of feminist ethics is Nel Noddings. How does Noddings define a "caring person"? Why does Noddings think that caring should be the foundation for ethical decision-making?
11. How does Noddings distinguish between "caring-about" and "caring-for"? What is the difference between ethical caring and natural caring? How are the two forms of caring related?
12. According to Rita Manning, what is the central priority of ethics? How do our duties to others arise? Do we have equal responsibilities to all people? How can we limit our obligation to care for others?
13. Why does Manning wonder whether taking a moral philosophy course is the best way to become sensitive and moral individuals? Does Manning think that we are obligated to help starving people in Africa? Besides persons, what else can be an object of care?
