Question 1

1) Explain the first scene in this opening act. (What is the setting? What is the action? What is the mood?)

- Characters: witches, soldiers, ordinary people, king
- Setting: a forest where the natural world is the usual home to both supernatural and ordinary activities, including the battle between good and evil.
- Time: early morning, just before the start of dawn when there is some light but the world is still dark.
- Witches: each has their own name – Hecate, Despatch, Inchantress
- Major Characters: “The first [witch] is Banquo’s wife.”
By Macbeth, Hecate is called first – “The image of Banquo’s wife”
The witches are trying to get Macbeth to murder Banquo.
Macbeth is the one who is the most evil of the opening scene.
- “The old” generation: when you are old, inevitably, you are the generation that will eventually be replaced by a new one, but you are still an important, sometimes very useful, in the interim. “The old generation has to die for the new one.” “The old generation is replaced by the new generation, but it is not the end of the world.”
- All the witches are trying to get Macbeth to kill Banquo, but they are not the only ones who are trying to get Macbeth to kill Banquo. “The old generation is not the only one who is trying to get Macbeth to kill Banquo.”
- “The old” generation: when you are old, inevitably, you are the generation that will eventually be replaced by a new one.
- “The old” generation: when you are old, inevitably, you are the generation that will eventually be replaced by a new one.

2) What is the main idea of this scene? (What is the main idea of this scene? What is the main idea of this scene?)

- “The old” generation: when you are old, inevitably, you are the generation that will eventually be replaced by a new one.
