

Everyday Use: Short Story by Alice Walker

7 pages | 1680 words

In Everyday Use the theme of the story revolves around heritage. Heritage plays a very important part in Mama's life. She has a strong belief that things that are passed down from generations have the presence of the people who once upon a time own them. Every item that has been passed down to Mama is special to her because it's her family's heirlooms. Mama wants her older daughter to understand the meaning of family and what their heritage consists of and how sacred the heirlooms are to the family. Mama's older daughter Dee has a very different perspective of heritage. Since Dee is educated and has a broader view of life; she wants the items for her selfish needs to put them in a museum. She wants to make something out of them instead of keeping them to herself and having a deeper connection with these items.

With her body type, she is built to do any type of work she puts her mind to. Nothing stops her to succeed in what she wants when it comes to family. I can work outside all day, breaking ice to get water for washing; I can eat pork liver cooked over open fire minutes after it comes streaming hog(Walker 2). This shows how independent Mama is. It shows that she does not need anyone's help to do something. She does not need a significant other to help her maintain her family, she is perfectly fine without one.

The father's absence in the family is shown in a way that all they talk about is a close family, but never once do they mention the father. Mama has a strong mentality; nothing disgusts her. She is able to kill animals and that will not bother her, all for the sake of her family. Her family is her main source of motivation and keeps her going throughout all the destruction that she has been through. She has been through so much in her life. For example, when her house burned down she had to figure it all on her own. I used to think she hated Maggie, too. But that was before we raised money, the church and me, to send her to Augusta to school (Walker 3.) Mama is one...
