Transcendental Style In Film:

, Transcendental Style in Film Paul Schrader, 1988 Transcendental Style in Film Paul Schrader, 1972

Seeing Is Believing Richard Vance Goodwin, 2022-07-19 In this study in IVP Academic's STA series theologian Richard Goodwin considers how the images that constitute film might be a conduit of God's revelation. By considering works by Stanley Kubrick, Martin Scorsese, Terrence Malick and more, Goodwin argues that by inviting emotional responses, film images can be a medium of divine revelation. The Theological Power of Film James Lorenz, 2024-06-21 This book explores the theological power of film and seeks to render a properly theological account of cinematic art. It considers What theology and theological practice does cinematic art give rise to? What are the perceptual and affective potentials of film for theology and what if anything is theological about the cinematic medium itself? The author argues that film is a fundamentally embodied art form, a haptic and somatic medium of perception cum expression. This combined with the distinct temporal aesthetic of film invests cinema with profound theological potentials. The chapters explore these potentials through theological cinematic analysis, emphasising the themes of encounter, embodiment, time and contemplation, as well as three intimately connected doctrines of Christian theology: creation, incarnation and eschatology. Throughout the book, the films and writings of the Russian director Andrei Tarkovsky emerge as a singular illustration of the theological power of film becoming a crucial resource for theological cinematic analysis. ReFocus: The Films of Antoinetta Angelidi Sotiris Petridis, Penny Bouska, 2022-12-05 Antoinetta Angelidi directed four full-length fiction films: Idees Fixes (1977), Topos (1985), The Hours A Square (1995) and Thief or Reality (2001), which have been screened at international film festivals and contemporary art museums. Angelidi's work has become synonymous with Greek Experimental Cinema, while her films and her theoretical writings have been the subject of numerous film courses, critical essays and retrospectives. The inversion and juxtaposition of codes, as well as the dream mechanism and the uncanny, comprise her main creative strategies. The complexity of cinematic heterogeneity and the narrative multiplicity of different filmic elements which characterize her work are examined in depth in this edited collection dedicated to Antoinetta Angelidi's oeuvre. 100 Spiritual Movies to See before You Die John A. Zukowski, 2023-11-15 Spiritual themes are common in movies. The unconventional savior. The hero's journey. The redemption tale. The balance of creation. Journalist John A. Zukowski reflects on twelve major spiritual themes in the world of cinema, discussing films from Dead Man Walking to Bruce Almighty, from Groundhog Day to Chariots of Fire and many more. See them all, read them all, before you die. Experiencing Epiphanies in Literature and Cinema Bradley Lewis, 2024-07-09 Experiencing Epiphanies in Literature and Cinema uses health humanities and psychological humanities to explore literary and cinematic epiphanies. James Joyce first adopted the term epiphany from its religious use to articulate moments of luminous intensity or sudden spiritual manifestation. This study develops and extends Joyce's use of epiphany through a range of literary and cinematic examples, from William Shakespeare to Ruth Ozeki and from Yasujiro Ozu to Jim

Jarmusch This wealth of epiphanies in the arts is important from a health humanities perspective in that they provide access to aesthetic and sustainable experiences of well being joy and human flowering They also provide antidotes to aesthetics of anti epiphany a showing forth of terror horror and panic Experiencing Epiphanies is accordingly both critical and affirmative diagnostic and therapeutic It uses critique to understand the increasing need for well being in contemporary times and it uses affirmation to develop underutilized resources in the arts for transforming configuring and refiguring our everyday lives

Department Penn State University at Altoona Not many works of art would withstand the rigorous examination of the kind in this collection but Kenneth Morefield and his contributors have chosen well They've chosen filmmakers whose work not only withstands but seems to grow under the bright light of careful consideration I'm not familiar with all of them which makes the collection a useful map to the currents that run below their surfaces but I also found new ways to appreciate Pedro Costa and the Dardenne brothers whose films I've admired even loved but never thought about in quite this way Reading the essays together I discovered that this group of filmmakers while distinct in their beliefs approaches and aesthetics are all striving to reawaken our senses and by capturing something concrete they're looking for something invisible That they've found so many ways to do this from Del Toro's physically rooted fantasy to Costa's material world proves that cinema may not be dead just yet even with the twentieth century in the rear view mirror Rob Davis chief film critic of Paste Magazine co-founder of Daily Plastic www.dailyplastic.com The Religion and Film Reader Jolyon P.
