Underveis Historie 9:

Opening the Mind or Drawing Boundaries? Thorsteinn Helgason, Simone Lässig, 2009-12-09 History texts studied by students in schools are an important field for drawing boundaries between nations beliefs ethnic groups and countries sometimes causing disputes and protests Even in the democratic and peaceful Nordic countries history texts carry a message of authorized content knowledge and situated values At the same time they are meant to foster the critical mind a skillfull eye and a tolerant spirit In this volume scholars from Denmark Finland Iceland Norway and Sweden explore the question of Us and the Others in Nordic textbooks and educational media and focus on teachers opinions and use of history texts partly based on a survey among Nordic history teachers in elementary and secondary schools The questions dealt with are of national identity and multiculturalism sameness and difference content and pedagogy skills and values goals of history education and teachers situations The scholars and teachers compare the educational and societal aims with the actual teaching materials at hand The potentialities and limitations of textbooks and other educational media are investigated and discussed
