Uneven Futures Ida Yoshinaga,Sean Guynes,Gerry Canavan,2022-12-20 Essays on speculative science fiction explore the futures that feed our most cherished fantasies and terrifying nightmares while helping diverse communities devise new survival strategies for a tough millennium The explosion in speculative science fiction SF across different media from the late twentieth century to the present has compelled those in the field of SF studies to rethink the community's identity orientation and stakes. In this edited collection more than forty writers, critics, game designers, scholars, and activists explore core SF texts with an eye toward a future in which corporations dominate both the means of production and the means of distribution and governments rely on powerful surveillance and carceral technologies. The essays, international in scope, demonstrate the diversity of SF through a balance of popular mass market novels, comics, films, games, TV shows, creepypastas, and more niche works. SF works explored range from Riot Baby by Tochi Onyebuchi, 2084: The End of the World by Boualem Sansal, Terra Nullius by Claire Coleman, Watchmen and X-Men comics, and the Marvel film Captain America: The Winter Soldier to the MaddAddam trilogy by Margaret Atwood, The Dispossessed by Ursula K. Le Guin, The Wandering Earth by Liu Cixin, and the Wormwood trilogy by Tade Thompson. In an era in which ecological disaster and global pandemics regularly expose and intensify deep political economic inequalities, what futures has SF anticipated? What survival strategies has it provided us? Can it help us to deal with and grow beyond the inequalities and injustices of our times? Unlike other books of speculative science fiction criticism, Uneven Futures uses a think piece format to make its critical insights engaging to a wide audience. The essays inspire visions of better possible futures, drawing on feminist, queer, and global speculative engagements with Indigenous, Latinx, and Afro and African futurisms, while imparting important lessons for political organizing in the present.
