Speaking Truths with Film Bill Nichols, 2016-04-05 What issues of both form and content shape the documentary film What role does visual evidence play in relation to a documentary's arguments about the world in which we live Can a documentary be believed and why or why not How do documentaries abide by or subvert ethical expectations Are mockumentaries a form of subversion In what ways can the documentary be an aesthetic experience and at the same time have political or social impact And how can such impacts be empirically measured Pioneering film scholar Bill Nichols investigates the ways in which documentaries strive for accuracy and truthfulness but simultaneously fabricate a form that shapes reality Such films may rely on re enactment to re create the past storytelling to provide satisfying narratives and rhetorical figures such as metaphor and expressive forms such as irony to make a point In many ways documentaries are a fiction unlike any other With clarity and passion Nichols offers close readings of several provocative documentaries including Land without Bread Restrepo The Thin Blue Line The Act of Killing and Steve Jobs The Man in the Machine as part of an authoritative examination of the layered approaches and delicate ethical balance demanded of documentary filmmakers Provided by publisher Cine-Ethics Jinhee Choi, Mattias Frey, 2013-10-15 This volume looks at the significance and range of ethical questions that pertain to various film practices Diverse philosophical traditions provide useful frameworks to discuss spectators affective and emotional engagement with film which can function as a moral ground for one's connection to others and to the world outside the self These traditions encompass theories of emotion phenomenology the philosophy of compassion and analytic and continental ethical thinking and environmental ethics This anthology is one of the first volumes to open up a dialogue among these diverse methodologies Contributors bring to the fore some of the assumptions implicitly shared between these theories and forge a new relationship between them in order to explore the moral engagement of the spectator and the ethical consequences of both producing and consuming films

Branding Berlin Katrina Sark, 2023-07-21 This book is a cultural history of post Wall urban social political and cultural transformations in Berlin Branding Berlin From Division to the Cultural Capital of Europe presents a cultural analysis of Berlin's cultural production including literature film memoirs and non fiction works art media urban branding campaigns and cultural diversity initiatives put forth by the Berlin Senate and allows readers to understand the various changes that transformed the formerly divided city of voids into a hip cultural capital The book examines Berlin's branding urban economic development and its search for a post Wall identity by focusing on manifestations of nostalgic longing in documentary films and other cultural products Building on the sociological research of urban branding and linking it with an interpretive analysis of cultural products generated in Berlin during that time the author examines the intersections and tensions between the nostalgic views of the past and the branded images of Berlin's present and future This insightful and innovative work will interest scholars and students of cultural and media studies branding and advertising urban communication film studies visual culture tourism and cultural memory Trans Narratives Ana Horvat, Orly Lael Netzer, Sarah McRae, Julie Rak, 2021-09-30 Recently trans has taken on a number of important theoretical and critical meanings inside and outside the academy As a prefix trans can attach itself to other words to express or describe movement and change as it does in the terms transnational or transmedia Trans is also an adjective when it is part of a word that signifies an identity or expression Trans has worked as an adjective to destabilize established ideas about gender as it makes new senses of what gender can mean for trans people Much of the study of life writing is about the study of identity and the possibilities for lives that stories of identity make possible In that spirit Trans Narratives trans transmedia transnational represents an opportunity for critical work about life writing by trans people to be featured as it seeks to interrogate the idea of trans in multiple registers bringing a prefix to the center of the current field of life writing studies It aims to understand through life writing and its theory what trans means when we talk about identities and bodies and to understand better what the critical terms transmedia and transnational can mean for the field of life writing The Chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of a b Auto Biography Studies International Documentary, 2004 Collecting Visible Evidence Jane Gaines, Michael Renov, 1999 In documentary studies the old distinctions between fiction and nonfiction no longer apply as contemporary film and video artists produce works that defy classification Coming together to make sense of these developments the contributors to this book effectively redefine documentary studies They trace the documentary impulse in the early detective camera in the reenactment of battle scenes from World War I and in the telecast of the Nevada A bomb test in 1952 Other topics include experiments in virtual reality the crisis of representation in anthropology and video art and documentary work that challenge the asymmetry of the postcolonial us them divide Book jacket Representing Reality Bill Nichols, 1992-02-22 a valuable and important book The Year's Work in Critical and Cultural Theory Representing Reality is the first book to offer a conceptual overview of documentary filmmaking practice It addresses numerous social issues and how they are presented to the viewer by means of style rhetoric and narrative technique The volume poses questions about the relationship of the documentary tradition to power the body authority knowledge and our experience of history This study advances the pioneering work of Nichols's earlier book Ideology and the Image Nichols has written a road block of a book which reconfigures the debate on the documentary at a new level of sophistication and complexity which can only be ignored at the risk of ignoring the whole area of documentary film Sight and Sound the most important book on documentary film yet published Canadian Journal of Film Studies Ireland and Dysfunction Asier Altuna-García de Salazar, 2017-01-06 This collection of critical essays finds itself at the intersection of cultural literary and film studies and explores the various ways in which dysfunction is expressed in Irish studies Dysfunction can be regarded as part and parcel of a portrayal of a landscape of trauma and crisis that may have been traditionally repressed in Ireland at large However dysfunction also envisages mediation managing transcending and healing As such this volume examines how Ireland tackles dysfunction at large but more importantly how mediation managing healing and transcending help in the understanding of the ever changing and on going process of the construction of an Irish identity today sometimes looking back at the past but always creating the need of inventing new ways to understand the future of Ireland The collection presents essays which tackle dysfunction from different and multifarious perspectives that range from sociological historical and literary discourses to more contemporary insights into dysfunction in today's Ireland. It encompasses theory and analysis and includes the works of both senior academics and emerging scholars as well as those outside academia.

The Johns Hopkins Guide to Literary Theory and Criticism Michael Groden, Martin Kreiswirth, Imre Szeman, 2005. Publisher Description: Michael Moore's Fahrenheit 9/11 Robert Brent Toplin, 2006. Examines the development of Michael Moore's ideas and the evolution of his filmmaking; then dissects Fahrenheit 9/11 and explores the many claims and disagreements about the movie's truthfulness. This study shows that Michael Moore's film did more than shake up a nation.

Animation Journal, 2001. Memories of the Origins of Ethnographic Film Beate Engelbrecht, 2007. Ethnographic film, which combines documentary filming and anthropological research, originated in the late 19th century. Early on, anthropologists used film to record cultures. Documentary filmmakers in the early 20th century developed different strategies with technical developments aiding further advances. In the 1950s to 1970s, intense debates among anthropologists, filmmakers, and artists, many of whom met regularly at conferences and festivals, took place on the methodology of ethnographic filmmaking. Their discussions were handed on by word of mouth but rarely recorded or published. In 2001, the pioneers of ethnographic film met in Göttingen and put together their recollections of the genre's Origins, thus giving an unusual insight into the development of ethnographic film.
