The Italian Civil Code and Complementary Legislation Italy, Susanna Beltramo, 2012 Italian Civil Code , Italian Civil Code Italy, 1944 The Law of Open Societies Jürgen Basedow, 2015-06-02 This book endeavours to interpret the development of private international law in light of social change Since the end of World War II the socio economic reality of international relations has been characterised by a progressive move from closed to open societies The dominant feature of our time is the opening of borders for individuals goods services capital and data It is reflected in the growing importance of ex ante planning as compared with ex post adjudication of cross border relations between individuals and companies What has ensued is a shift in the forces that shape international relations from states to private actors The book focuses on various forms of private ordering for economic and societal relations and its increasing significance while also analysing the role of the remaining regulatory powers of the states involved These changes stand out more distinctly by virtue of the comparative treatment of the law and the long term perspective employed by the author The text is a revised and updated version of the lectures given by the author during the 2012 summer courses of the Hague Academy of International Law International Trade & Business Law Review Gabriël Moens, 2005 The International Trade and Business Law Review is the official publication of the Australian Institute of Foreign and Comparative Law The Review includes leading articles case notes and comments as well as book reviews and understanding of recent developments in international trade and transnational business The Review contributes in a scholarly way to the discussion of these issues whilst being informative and of practical relevance to business people It also promotes further development of the trading relationship between Australia and its traditional trading partners including the European Community and the APEC countries of leading international trade law practitioners and academics from the European Community the United States Asia and Australia

The Chinese Civil Code in the Global Legal Order Mauro Bussani, Ivan Cardillo, Marta Infantino, Jun Xue, 2024-07-29 This volume offers a unique comprehensive view of the contents context and potential of the Civil Code that in 2021 entered into force in the People's Republic of China The twenty three essays herein collected authored by distinguished Chinese and non Chinese scholars describe inner and outer perceptions about the Chinese Civil Code and analyze its likely impact within and outside the country In so doing they shed light not only on the comparative origins of current Chinese rules but also on the potential influence that these rules may have in comparative terms in the future Rights of Individuals in an Earth Observation and Satellite Navigation Environment Arianna Vettorel, 2023-11-13 New Space technologies Earth observation and satellite navigation in particular have proven to be invaluable drivers of sustainable development thus contributing to the protection of several human rights the Good At the same time however New Space technologies raise concerns for the right to privacy the Bad and face a number of challenges posed by hostile cyber operations the Ugly Dr Arianna Vettorel analyzes the relevant international European and domestic legal frameworks and highlights the need for several innovative approaches and reforms in a transnational and bottom up perspective in order to maximize the Good and minimize the Bad and the Ugly of New Space technologies
