On Their Own Terms H Schmitz, 2004-06-16 On Their Own Terms is a study of how post 1990 German literature reconfigures the legacy of National Socialism and the Holocaust In five sections Historisation Perpetrators Hitler Youth Memories War Memories and Victim Perspective a number of key literary works such as Bernhard Schlink's Der Vorleser Martin Walser's Ein springender Brunnen Gunter Grass's Im Krebsgang and W G Sebald's Austerlitz are analysed The literary texts are situated within the wider context of contemporary German debates on the issue from the exhibition Crimes of the German Wehrmacht 1941-1945 to the Walser Bubis affair and the ensuing debate about representations of German suffering One of the central concerns of this book is the literary configuration of German experience and the narrative strategies employed by the writers to validate it against or set it in context with a perspective of victim experience

German Culture and the Uncomfortable Past Helmut Schmitz, 2017-07-05 Beginning with the question of the role of the past in the shaping of a contemporary identity this volume spans three generations of German and Austrian writers and explores changes and shifts in the aesthetics of Vergangenheitsbewältigung coming to terms with the past The purpose of the book is to assess contemporary German literary representations of National Socialism in a wider context of these current debates The contributors address questions arising from a shift over the last decade triggered by a generation change questions of personal and national identity in Germany and Austria and the aesthetics of memory One of the central questions that emerges in relation to the Hitler youth generation is that of biography as examined through Gunter Grass and Martin Walser's conflicting views on the subject of National Socialism Other themes explored here are the conflict between the post war generations and the contributions of that conflict to West German mentality and the growing historical distance and its influence on the aesthetics of representation
