Readers Choice Trauma Healing Workbook:

A Trauma Theory Reading of the Book of Job Michelle Keener, 2025-06-12 Michelle Keener incorporates advances in modern trauma theory in the interpretation of the book of Job Keener focuses primarily on using the framework of a psychological trauma narrative to read the text providing new insights into how Job functions as a text that deals with trauma After an extensive introduction to the history and fundamentals of trauma theory Keener actively applies a trauma theory reading to the book of Job with special attention paid to the elements of a therapeutic trauma narrative its role in the cognitive resolution of trauma and how this is reflected in the biblical text This approach provides alternative answers to some of the suggested redactions reconstruction and inconsistencies identified in the text of Job by previous scholars Keener also draws in the Wesleyan Quadrilateral as a means of reading the texts and examines how her conclusions may be useful in applied community contexts

The AuDHD Inner Child Healing Workbook Felda Gable Schaefer, Your childhood taught you to hide You learned that stimming was shameful that your sensory needs were inconvenient that your authentic communication was rude Teachers called you lazy when executive dysfunction made simple tasks impossible Therapists tried to train the autism out of you Peers excluded you for reasons you couldn't understand You developed masking as survival and that mask became a prison What Makes This Workbook Different This is the first comprehensive inner child healing workbook designed specifically for AuDHD autistic and ADHD adults Generic inner child books assume neurotypical emotional processing and ignore the specific wounds neurodivergent children carry This workbook uses schema therapy to address the exact patterns that develop when your sensory needs were dismissed your stims were stopped your special interests were pathologized and your brain was called wrong The Schema Therapy Approach for Neurodivergent Brains Schema therapy identifies the wounded parts inside you the Vulnerable Child who learned they were too much the Angry Child carrying rage at being misunderstood the Lonely Child remembering exclusion You'll learn to recognize these modes understand where they came from and develop a Healthy Adult voice that can finally give you what you needed as a child Four Wound Patterns You'll Heal The masking wound taught you to hide your authentic self to avoid rejection The belonging wound convinced you that something about you makes you unfit for connection The achievement wound created the impossible belief that you're simultaneously gifted and failing The sensory wound dismissed your body's signals as dramatic or wrong Each chapter provides exercises real life examples and reparenting practices designed for how your brain actually works Practical Tools Adapted for Your Neurology Imagery rescripting adapted for aphantasia and hyperphantasia Somatic practices that honor stimming as regulation Unmasking exercises that protect your safety while expanding authenticity Body based protocols for when talk therapy isn't enough Sensory comfort kits Daily check in practices Boundary scripts Every tool accounts for executive dysfunction sensory sensitivity and communication differences What You'll Gain Learn why your childhood felt so hard when others seemed fine Understand how AuDHD childhoods create specific schema patterns Stop the

Punitive Parents attacks on your Vulnerable Child Reclaim stimming as healthy self regulation Practice limited reparenting that honors your actual needs Build a life where you can be authentic without constant performance Develop an ongoing relationship with your inner child that supports your whole self Comprehensive Resources Included Inner child mode worksheets for tracking your patterns Reparenting letter templates for writing to your younger self Five guided imagery scripts adapted for different visualization styles Complete sensory comfort kit building guide Therapist finder checklist for locating neurodiversity affirming support This workbook bridges evidence based schema therapy with neurodivergent lived experience Your inner child has been waiting to be seen understood and cared for This is how you finally give them that
