Teaching Languages To Young Learners:

Teaching Languages to Young Learners Lynne Cameron,2001-03-15 This book will develop readers understanding of children are being taught a foreign language An Early Start Marianne Nikolov,Helena Curtain,Council of Europe,European Centre for Modern Languages,2000-01-01 There is a growing interest in teaching languages to young children This publication brings together papers from 18 countries It gives a cross section of major achievements and problem areas as well as an insight into research issues Languages and Children, Making the Match Helena Anderson Curtain,Carol Ann Dahlberg,2004 Acknowledgements Preface Introduction Key Concepts for Success Elementary and Middle School Foreign Languages Standards for Foreign Language Learning in the 21st Century Overview Section A Focus on the Learner 1 Characteristics of Young Learners Second Language Acquisition Cognitive Characteristics of the Learner

Teaching Modern Languages to Young Learners Marianne Nikolov,European Centre for Modern Languages,2007-01-01 This book is targeted at modern languages teachers of primary school children and focuses on curricula and syllabi as well as on teaching materials and methodology The papers look into issues related to both pre and in service teacher education innovative curriculum and syllabus design in tertiary education and lower primary schools and how new ideas can be implemented at national and classroom levels The first six papers focus on teacher education curricula and teacher development in pre service and in service programs whereas the last four papers examine curricula teaching materials and projects in primary schools Publisher s description Getting Started I Graciela Castellanos,2012-03-20 I recognize the training of educators as one of my primary missions whether they are parents foreign language teachers early childhood educators or entrepreneurs My fundamental goal is to guide bilingual individuals who have a special love for children and are willing to acquire the knowledge and skills to excel in the implementation of the programs I have developed The Getting Started manuals will guide you and provide you with all you need to start your own business and get the necessary information and knowledge to become successful Teaching Languages to Young Learners Shweta Singh (Assistant professor of English),2017 Teaching Languages with Technology Euline Cutrim Schmid,Shona Whyte,2014-11-03 This book draws on theories of second language acquisition SLA to illustrate how interactive white board technology can be exploited to support language acquisition It examines interaction collaboration and negotiation of meaning and focus on form in the communicative language classroom in primary secondary and vocational schools In recent years new technologies have been incorporated into second and foreign language education as tools for implementing teaching methodologies IWBs have established their role in the field of computer assisted language learning CALL and are an effective and inspiring tool which motivates both teachers and learners Although the number of IWBs in classrooms has rapidly increased over the past decade in many parts of the world teacher training materials and pedagogical support for the design evaluation and implementation of IWB based materials in the foreign language classroom has not kept pace Research also shows that language teachers do not always use IWBs in pedagogically sound ways There is a real need for the development of training models and examples of good practice which can support teachers in developing the necessary competencies for exploiting the IWB in ways consistent with current theories of language teaching pedagogy This book provides that best practice and gives a full account of in depth research in an accessible manner Learning and Teaching Languages Through Content Roy Lyster,2007-01-01 Based on a synthesis of classroom SLA research that has helped to shape evolving perspectives of content based instruction since the introduction of immersion programs in Montreal more than 40 years ago this book presents an updated perspective on integrating language and content in ways that engage second language learners with language across the curriculum A range of instructional practices observed in immersion and content based classrooms is highlighted to set the stage for justifying a counterbalanced approach that integrates both content based and form focused instructional options as complementary ways of intervening to develop a learner s interlanguage system A counterbalanced approach is outlined as an array of opportunities for learners to process language through content by means of comprehension awareness and production mechanisms and to negotiate language through content by means of interactional strategies involving teacher scaffolding and feedback Teaching Young Language Learners Annamaria Pinter,2006-03-02 An overview of the issues surrounding the teaching of young learners combines up to date research with principles of classroom practice to discuss skills vocabulary grammar adapting and designing materials planning and assessment and policy decisions Languages and Children Helena Anderson Curtain,Carol Ann Dahlberg,2010 With a focus on communicative language teaching as it reflects cognitive and second language acquisition theory this classic in the field provides a wealth of strategies and activities ready to use in the K 8 foreign language classroom This popular and completely updated text is the only comprehensive foreign language methods text for K 8 classrooms that is also accessible and engaging for undergraduate students Languages and Children Making the Match Fourth Edition provides extensive new information that is not easily accessible to the field The Fourth Edition maintains the integrity of past editions while reflecting the new and fascinating language issues that exist in today s classrooms and making standards based planning and instruction the guiding principles throughout the book Teaching Language and Literacy James F. Christie,Carol Vukelich,Billie Enz,2007 This text does an exemplary job of presenting current early literacy research and methods in a manner that can be understood and respected Also its emphasis upon workshop based instruction is very appealing to me as a long time advocate for this approach to literacy Scott A L Beck Georgia Southern University The third edition of Teaching Language and Literacy Preschool Through the Elementary Grades integrates a constructivist emergent literacy perspective with science based instructional practices This unique focus on theories and techniques that have proven to be successful helps pre service and in service teachers translate principles into classroom practice Perfect for any course with a focus on language the book covers the development and teaching of both oral and written language in preschool through elementary grades Its emphasis on diversity includes special features that describe how teachers can adjust instruction to meet the needs of second language and bilingual learners In addition the third edition focuses on scientifically based reading research SBRR throughout blending these findings with other perspectives in a value added approach to language and literacy teaching and learning New features include Emphasis on a blended approach to language and literacy instruction including both authentic learning linked to activities and developmentally appropriate teaching Activities such as Linking Knowledge to Practice help students connect theory to practices they observe in preschool and kindergarten classrooms In depth coverage of new federal and state literacy initiatives standardized literacy assessments and latest practices in ongoing literacy assessment
