Changing Race Clara E. Rodríguez, 2000-07 An introduction to the dynamic complexity of American ethnic life and Latino identity Latinos are the fastest growing population group in the United States Through their language and popular music Latinos are making their mark on American culture as never before As the United States becomes Latinized how will Latinos fit into America's divided racial landscape and how will they define their own racial and ethnic identity Through strikingly original historical analysis extensive personal interviews and a careful examination of census data Clara E Rodríguez shows that Latino identity is surprisingly fluid situation dependent and constantly changing She illustrates how the way Latinos are defining themselves and refusing to define themselves represents a powerful challenge to America's system of racial classification and American racism
