Dacia Maraini's Narratives of Survival Tommasina Gabriele, 2015-12-03 Dacia Maraini's Narratives of Survival Re Constructed focuses on Dacia Maraini's narrative from about 1984 to 2004 and makes substantive use of her interviews and essays While acknowledging the importance and ongoing validity of feminist scholarship of Maraini's work this book seeks to take scholarship on Maraini beyond feminist readings by identifying a critical framework that cuts across gender and genre and thereby invites alternative readings Using a method of close textual analysis the author includes studies of men children animals and imaginary characters in Maraini's narrative analyzes language character motifs and symbols and considers some of Maraini's work in light of declining postmodern and emerging posthuman critical social theory This critical framework identifies the paradigm of reconstruction as narrative center both strategy and theme of many of Maraini's works from this twenty year period and beyond Reconstruction here signifies the strategies by which Maraini's deep investment in survival which has its roots in the life threatening conditions she experienced as a small child in a WWII Japanese concentration camp is enacted in a narrative re building and re constructing of personal memory of various personal social and political histories of motherhood and maternal discourses of crime stories of postmodern fragmentation and even of the process of erasure itself Maraini's narrative is deeply attentive to the mechanisms that threaten survival of the body and not just the woman's body psychological and aesthetic survival the survival in the Italian canon of a woman author's work memory and legacy after her death the survival of a drug addicted and self destructive younger generation and by extension collective and ecological survival Never marked by nihilism or despair Maraini's narratives offer the ethos of reconstruction as a variation on the begin again that marks the end of many of her novels and as we can see in Colomba her own aesthetic process of renewal and regeneration This book focuses primarily on Il treno per Helsinki 1984 Isolina 1985 some of her short stories for children
