

INIKPI, FATHER'S LOVE CHILD

Once upon a time, in the kingdom of Igala land, there lived a king. His people loved him very much because he was a good king. One day, strong enemies from distant lands threatened his reign with war. The strong enemies had conquered several foreign villages. Now the Igala king consulted his traditional priest to know if he will win the war. The traditional priest told him that he will win the war if he agrees to sacrifice his only child to the gods. The shocked and sad king couldn't sleep or eat for three days. One afternoon, he called his daughter, "Inikpi!". She ran to him and bowed before him in response. He told her he didn't call her. She went back inside. He called her again. When she ran to him, he told her he didn't call her. The third time he called her, Inikpi ran to him and said, "Father, please tell me what the matter is." The king told her that she must be sacrificed to win the war. Inikpi agreed to be sacrificed for the sake of her people. The king won the war against the strong enemies and Igala people lived peacefully for a very long time.
