1. Why are banks increasingly reaching out to be one-stop financial service conglomerate? Is it a good idea, in your opinion?

Banks are expanding to offer a full range of financial services to meet diverse client needs, increase profitability, and retain customers. In my opinion, it can be a good strategy if managed carefully to avoid excessive risks.

2. Banks are the 'financial department store' in the modern era. Do you agree?

Yes, banks now offer a wide range of financial products and services under one roof, similar to department stores offering various goods in one place.

3. What must a corporation do to qualify as a commercial bank?

A corporation must obtain a banking charter, comply with capital requirements, meet regulatory standards, and be subject to oversight by banking regulators.

4. Are banks dying? If yes, how can they overcome this problem? Give your opinion.

While traditional banking is facing challenges due to fintech competition, banks are not dying. They can adapt by investing in digital transformation, improving customer experience, and embracing innovative financial technologies.

5. How is the range of bank management decisions limited by government regulation?

Government regulations impose limits on capital requirements, lending practices, interest rates, risk management, and market operations, which can restrict bank management's freedom in decision-making.

6. How do laws and regulations shape the services banks can offer to the public?

Regulations define which services banks can offer, including loan products, deposit accounts, investment services, and insurance. Laws ensure consumer protection, financial stability, and transparency.

7. Do you think banking regulation must be balanced and should be limited?

Yes, banking regulation should strike a balance between ensuring financial stability and allowing banks enough flexibility to innovate and grow without excessive burdens.
