Index-catalogue of the Library ... Library of the Surgeon-General's Office (U.S.),1959 Crossover Picturebooks Sandra L. Beckett,2013-06-17 This book situates the picturebook genre within the widespread international phenomenon of crossover literature examining an international corpus of picturebooks including artists books wordless picturebooks and celebrity picturebooks that appeal to readers of all ages Focusing on contemporary picturebooks Sandra Beckett shows that the picturebook has traditionally been seen as a children s genre but in the eyes of many authors illustrators and publishers it is a narrative form that can address any and all age groups Innovative graphics and formats as well as the creative often complex dialogue between text and image provide multiple levels of meaning and invite readers of all ages to consider texts that are primarily marketed as children s books The interplay of text and image that distinguishes the picturebook from other forms of fiction and makes it a unique art form also makes it the ultimate crossover genre Crossover picturebooks are often very complex texts that are challenging for adults as well as children Many are characterized by difficult adult themes genre blending metafictional discourse intertextuality sophisticated graphics and complex text image interplay Exciting experiments with new formats and techniques as well as novel interactions with new media and technologies have made the picturebook one of the most vibrant and innovative contemporary literary genres one that seems to know no boundaries Crossover Picturebooks is a valuable addition to the study of a genre that is gaining increasing recognition and appreciation and contributes significantly to the field of children s literature as a whole Monthly Bulletin of the Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh,1916 tyhe educational times ,1878 Catalog of Printed Books of the Folger Shakespeare Library, Washington, D.C. Folger Shakespeare Library,1970 Communist Propaganda at School Joanna Wojdon,2021-05-10 Communist Propaganda at School is based on an analysis of reading primers from the Soviet bloc and recreates the world as presented to the youngest schoolchildren who started their education between 1949 and 1989 across the nine Eastern European countries The author argues that those first textbooks from their first to last pages were heavily laden with communist propaganda and that they share similar concepts techniques and even contents even if some national specificities can be observed This volume reconstructs the image of the world presented to schoolchildren in the first books they were required to read in their school life and argues that the image was charged with communist propaganda The book is based on the analysis of over sixty reading primers from nine countries of the Soviet bloc Albania Bulgaria Czechoslovakia the German Democratic Republic Hungary Poland Romania the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia from the period Written with simplicity and straightforwardness this book will be a valuable resource not only to international academics dealing with the issues of propaganda censorship education childhood and everyday life under communism in Eastern and Central Europe but can also academics dealing with education under communism or with the content of primary education It also brings educational experiences of the Soviet bloc to international researchers in particular to researchers of education under totalitarian and authoritarian regimes Books in Print ,1994
