Blueprint Social Media Literacy:

Handbook of Research on New Media Applications in Public Relations and Advertising Esiyok, Elif, 2020-08-07

As competition between companies increases the need for effective public relations and advertising campaigns becomes imperative to the success of the business. However, with the introduction of new media, the nature of these campaigns has changed. Today's consumers have more awareness and diversified ways to obtain knowledge and through new media they can provide feedback. An understanding of how to utilize new media to promote and sustain the reputation of an organization is vital for its continued success. The Handbook of Research on New Media Applications in Public Relations and Advertising is a pivotal reference source that provides vital research on the application of new media tools for running successful public relations and advertising campaigns. While highlighting topics such as digital advertising, online behavior, and social networking, this book is ideally designed for public relations officers, advertisers, marketers, brand managers, communication directors, social media managers, IT consultants, researchers, academicians, students, and industry practitioners. The Routledge Handbook of Media Education Futures Post-Pandemic Yonty Friesem, Usha Raman, Igor Kanižaj, Grace Y.

Choi, 2022-09-13. This handbook showcases how educators and practitioners around the world adapted their routine media pedagogies to meet the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic, which often led to significant social, economic, and cultural hardships. Combining an innovative mix of traditional chapters, autoethnography, case studies, and dialogue within an intercultural framework, the handbook focuses on the future of media education and provides a deeper understanding of the challenges and affordances of media education as we move forward. Topics range from fighting disinformation, how vulnerable communities coped with disadvantages using media, transforming educational TV or YouTube to reach larger audiences, supporting students' wellbeing through various online strategies, examining early childhood parents and media mentoring using digital tools, reflecting on educators' intersectionality on video platforms, youth-produced media to fight injustice, teaching remotely, and providing low-tech solutions to address the digital divide. Search for solutions collaboratively using social media and many more. Offering a unique and broad multicultural perspective on how we can learn from the challenges of addressing varied pedagogical issues that have arisen in the context of the pandemic, this handbook will allow researchers, educators, practitioners, institution leaders, and graduate students to explore how media education evolved during 2020 and 2021 and how these experiences can shape the future direction of media education. Digital Politics in Canada

Tamara A. Small, Harold J. Jansen, 2020-10-21. The increased use of digital politics by citizens, groups, and governments over the last 25 years carried the promise of transforming the way politics and government was practiced. This book looks at Canadian political practice and the reality of the political process against those early promises. Echo Chambers of Conflict Jonathan Matusitz, Jonah Lynne, 2025-10-20. This volume offers a detailed description of how media propaganda shapes public perception in conflict zones, drawing on key communication theories like framing and agenda setting. It analyzes disinformation campaigns by Hamas and Israel showing how psychological warfare plays out on social media platforms The book delves into polarization and radicalization emphasizing social media's role in exacerbating these processes and exploring how individuals especially youths are radicalized online through gradual stages of desensitization This discussion is expanded through an analysis of digital activism and the role of social media in facilitating global protest movements

Propaganda in Media Jonathan Hawkins, AI, 2025-03-04 Propaganda in Media examines how political messaging wartime propaganda and public relations shape public opinion It explores how governments and organizations use persuasive communication to influence our perceptions highlighting that propaganda isn't just about falsehoods it's a sophisticated system designed to cultivate specific beliefs For example the book might expose how subtle cues in political campaigns or public relations influence policy decisions Understanding these tactics is crucial for an informed citizenry The book traces the evolution of propaganda from the early 20th century to the digital age explaining basic concepts in rhetoric media studies and political science Structured in three parts it introduces propaganda's forms and psychological underpinnings examines case studies and focuses on media literacy By providing tools for critical media consumption it empowers readers to identify and resist manipulative messaging

Soft Skills and Hard Values Kerry J.

Kennedy, Margarita Pavlova, John Chi-Kin Lee, 2022-11-07 To help researchers educators and policy makers understand and support the development of 21st century skills in schools this edited volume explores the various iterations of soft skills with a particular focus on their implications for values and evaluates ways in which soft skills and hard values can be integrated Discourse throughout the 21st century has focused on the changing nature of work the need for new skill sets and the disruptive effects of new technologies This has been a neo liberal discourse that subordinated personal and individual needs to the needs of a productive workforce delivering more and more efficiencies linked to higher and higher profits The solution is often seen to be in the development of a school curriculum that focuses on work ready skills for an increasingly complex work environment and its demands Agencies such as OECD and UNESCO highlight the need to link the skills agenda with complementary values Yet this process is at a very early stage The proponents of the Fourth Industrial Revolution 4IR for example highlight the impact of new technologies not just on work but also on the social world Yet they neglect to explore the values that would be needed in these new disruptive environments This book takes up that issue and lays out the multiple value systems that are available for this new 21st century world It is an important resource for policy makers academics and teachers with responsibility for a new generation
