Fraud Essays David Rakoff:

Fraud David Rakoff, 2011-07-27 A frequent contributor to the New York Times magazine Outside Salon and GQ and a regular on Public Radio International's This American Life David Rakoff's debut collection of essays is simultaneously laugh out loud funny and take your breath away poignant David Rakoff is a fish out of water Whether he finds himself on assignment climbing Mount Monadnock in New Hampshire donning a pair of Timberlands for his trek only to realize with horror that the shoes I wouldn't be caught dead in might actually turn out to be the shoes I am caught dead in sitting quietly impersonating Sigmund Freud in a department store window for a month or musing on the unique predicament of being undetectably Canadian in New York City what's more spicy than being Canadian I ask you Rakoff has a gift for exposing life's humour and pathos Fraud takes us places even we didn't know we wanted to go expeditions as varied as a search for elves in Iceland a foray into soap opera acting or contemplating the gin soaked olive at the bottom of a martini glass With the sharpest of eyes David Rakoff explores the odd and ordinary events of life spotting what is unique funny and absurd in the world around him But for all its razor sharp wit and snarky humor Fraud is also ultimately an object lesson in not taking life or oneself too seriously

Half Empty David Rakoff, 2011-09-06 In this deeply smart and sneakily poignant collection of essays the bestselling author of Fraud and Don't Get Too Comfortable makes an inspired case for always assuming the worst because then you'll never be disappointed Whether he's taking on pop culture phenomena with Oscar Wilde worthy wit or dealing with personal tragedy Rakoff's sharp observations and humorist's flair for the absurd will have you positively reveling in the untapped power of negativity

Judge This Chip Kidd, 2015-06-02 A fun playful look at the importance of first impressions in design and in life from acclaimed book designer Chip Kidd First impressions are everything They dictate whether something stands out how we engage with it whether we buy it and how we feel In Judge This renowned designer Chip Kidd takes us through his day as he takes in first impressions of all kinds We follow this visual journey as Kidd encounters and engages with everyday design breaking down the good the bad the absurd and the brilliant as only someone with a critical trained eye can From the design of your morning paper to the subway ticket machine to the books you browse to the smartphone you use to the packaging for the chocolate bar you buy as an afternoon treat Kidd reveals the hidden secrets behind each of the design choices with a healthy dose of humor expertise and of course judgment as he goes Judge This is a design love story exposing the often invisible beauty and betrayal in simple design choices ones most of us never even think to notice And with each object Kidd proves that first impressions whether we realize it or not have a huge impact on the way we perceive the world

Don't Get Too Comfortable David Rakoff, 2010-06-04 The Indignities of Coach Class the Torments of Low Thread Count the Never Ending Quest for Artisanal Olive Oil and Other First World Problems David Rakoff's collection of autobiographical essays Fraud established him as one of our funniest most insightful writers In Don't Get Too Comfortable Rakoff journeys into the land of plenty that is contemporary North America Rarely have greed vanity selfishness and vapidly been so mercilessly and wittily portrayed Whether contrasting the elegance of one of the last flights of the supersonic Concorde with the good times and chicken wings of Hooters Air portraying the rarified universe of Paris fashion shows where an evening dress can cost as much as four years of college or traveling to a private island off the coast of Belize to watch a soft core Playboy TV shoot where he is provided with his very own personal manservant David Rakoff takes us on a bitingly funny grand tour of our culture of excess delving into the manic getting and spending that defines the North American way of life Somewhere along the line our healthy self regard has exploded into obliterating narcissism and Rakoff is there to map that frontier He sits through the grotesqueries of avant garde vaudeville in Times Square immediately following 9 11 Twenty days without food allows him to experience firsthand the wonders of detoxification and the frozen world of cryonics whose promise of eternal life is the ultimate status symbol leaves him very cold indeed much to our good fortune At once a Wildean satire of our ridiculous culture of overconsumption and a plea for a little human decency Don't Get Too Comfortable is a bitingly funny grand tour of our special circle of gilded age hell
