INTO THE WILD

In April 1992 a young man from a well-to-do family hitchhiked to Alaska and walked alone into the wilderness north of Mt. McKinley. His name was Christopher Johnson McCandless. He had given $25,000 in savings to charity, abandoned his car and most of his possessions, burned all the cash in his wallet, and invented a new life for himself. Four months later, his decomposed body was found by a moose hunter. . . .

the Himalayas as a client of Rob Hall the most respected high altitude guide in the world A rangy thirty five year old New Zealander Hall had summited Everest four times between 1990 and 1995 and had led thirty nine climbers to the top Ascending the mountain in close proximity to Hall s team was a guided expedition led by Scott Fischer a forty year old American with legendary strength and drive who had climbed the peak without supplemental oxygen in 1994 But neither Hall nor Fischer survived the rogue storm that struck in May 1996 Krakauer examines what it is about Everest that has compelled so many people including himself to throw caution to the wind ignore the concerns of loved ones and willingly subject themselves to such risk hardship and expense Written with emotional clarity and supported by his unimpeachable reporting Krakauer s eyewitness account of what happened on the roof of the world is a singular achievement Into the Wild is available on audio read by actor Campbell Scott

'Places Of Longing': The Escapist motif in the works of Garland, Sutcliffe and Krakauer Hannes Krehan,2013-10-02 Master s Thesis from the year 2013 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1 3 <http://www.uni-jena.de/Anglistik/Amerikanistik/language/English/abstract> In today s fleeting globalized world people more than ever seem to feel at odds with themselves They escape wherever and whenever they can from the workplace from the mundane duties of everyday existence from social pressure and expectations from each other Escape from reality is not a new concept for mankind s innate dissatisfaction with existence as Evans calls it is probably almost as old as existence itself In the 21st century however the possibilities of retreat are endless and pervade every aspect of life Digital entertainment has become abundant and ironically almost inescapable while mass media carries the viewer off to exotic places without him even having to leave the house Amidst this virtual world the modern wanderlust has found its place Entire legions of travelers move on to remote places in search of relaxation diversion and the solution to their unfulfilled yearnings for utopian landscapes In his essay The Rationality of Escapism and Self Deception Longeway defines escapism as the attempt to avoid awareness of aversive beliefs He goes on to say that Escapist entertainment s essential purpose is to draw us away from our everyday troubles and sometimes to help us to fantasize ourselves as better more important and better off than we really are Indulgence in such entertainment helps us avoid temporarily unpleasant truths that we must live with and it is this escape from unpleasant reality that gives us the terms escapist and escapism The notion of escapism evokes a whole chain of terms and concepts directly connected to it repression distraction travel leisure self discovery and of course places imagined or real to whom the individual wishes to escape to In this paper I want to analyze three books on escapism and the various ways in which it presents itself in them My focus will be on Alex Garland s backpacker cult novel The Beach and William Sutcliffe s debunking of the gap year traveler in Are You Experienced as well as Jon Krakauer s non fiction book Into The Wild The first two belong to backpacker fiction a genre that emerged particularly forcefully at the turn of the 21st century The authors of these narratives employ satire in order to debunk the escapism and self fashioning of a demographic of young urban Anglophone travelers who exert traveling mostly as a staged interest for other cultures while in truth they seek self fulfillment and self gratification Hunger for the Wild Michael L. ecopoetic weaving of word to the world at work via the many entanglements between mind matter and meaning whether on a local or a global scale It encapsulates how the words stories and concepts we humans articulate as we try to make sense of the world we inhabit give part of its shape to the web of ecological relations that we depend on for survival It seeks to cast light on the disenchanting and reenchanting powers of stories and poesis in general as stories retain the power to make us either become oblivious to and destroy or to feel and honor the many complex ties between the multitudinous nature cultures intertwined within the fabric of a multispecies world always in the making This book offers a total of fourteen articles written by international scholars in ecocriticism and eco-poetics who by their analyses of literature and or films and the political subtext they thus render visible aim at showing how the study of environmentally minded media may renew our attention to the entangled agencies of the human and the more than human realm Thus this work offers to counter a reproach ecocriticism has often been met with namely the over presence of US scholars and the lack of diversity in subjects in the field since the articles presented provide a wide variety of approaches and topics with examples of UK and Native American literature Polynesian myth graphic novels or haiku In doing so the book expands on the fields of ecocriticism and eco-poetics adding to this branch of study and enriching it with high quality academic studies

Eiger Dreams Jon Krakauer, 1997 No one writes about mountaineering and its attendant victories and hardships more brilliantly than Jon Krakauer In this collection of his finest essays and reporting Krakauer writes of mountains from the memorable perspective of one who has himself struggled with solo madness to scale Alaska's notorious Devils Thumb In Pakistan the fearsome K2 kills thirteen of the world's most experienced mountain climbers in one horrific summer In Valdez Alaska two men scale a frozen waterfall over a four hundred foot drop In France a hip international crowd of rock climbers bungee jumpers and paragliders figure out new ways to risk their lives on the towering peaks of Mont Blanc Why do they do it How do they do it In this extraordinary book Krakauer presents an unusual fraternity of daredevils athletes and misfits stretching the limits of the possible From the paranoid confines of a snowbound tent to the thunderous suffocating terror of a white out on Mount McKinley Eiger Dreams spins tales of driven lives sudden deaths and incredible victories This is a stirring vivid book about one of the most compelling and dangerous of all human pursuits

Wild/lives Terrie Waddell, 2014-02-25 Wild lives draws on myth popular culture and analytical psychology to trace the machinations of trickster in contemporary film and television This archetypal energy traditionally gravitates toward liminal spaces physical locations and shifting states of mind By focusing on productions set in remote or isolated spaces Terrie Waddell explores how key trickster infused sites of transition reflect the psychological fragility of their willing and unwilling occupants In differing ways the selected texts Deadwood Grizzly Man Lost Solaris The Biggest Loser Amores Perros and Repulsion all play with inner and outer marginality As this study demonstrates the dramatic potential of transition is not always geared toward resolution Prolonging the anxiety of change is an increasingly popular option Trickster moves within this wildness and instability to agitate a form of dialogue
