Narrative Care: Biopolitics and the Novel Arne De Boever, 2013-03-28 If the September 11 terror attacks opened up an era of crises and exceptions of which we are yet to see the end it is perhaps not surprising that care has emerged in the early twenty first century as a key political issue This book approaches contemporary narratives of care through the lens of a growing body of theoretical writings on biopolitics Through close readings of J M Coetzee's Slow Man Kazuo Ishiguro's Never Let Me Go Paul Auster's The Book of Illusions and Tom McCarthy's Remainder it seeks to reframe debates about realism in the novel ranging from Ian Watt to Zadie Smith as engagements with the novel's biopolitical origins its relation to pastoral care the camps and the welfare state Within such an understanding of the novel what possibilities for a critical aesthetics of existence does the contemporary novel include

The Art of Astonishment Alice Brittan, 2022-02-24 First Place Winner in Non Fiction from the 2023 Next Generation Indie Book Awards Part literary history part personal memoir Alice Brittan's beautifully written The Art of Astonishment explores the rich intellectual religious and philosophical history of the gift and tells the interconnected story of grace where it comes from and what it is believed to accomplish Covering a remarkable range of materials from The Epic of Gilgamesh The Iliad and the tragedies of Classical Greece through the brothers Grimm and Montaigne to C S Lewis Toni Morrison J M Coetzee Elena Ferrante Karl Ove Knausgaard and Jhumpa Lahiri Brittan moves with ease from personal story to myth to theology to literature and analysis examining the nature of social and communal obligation the role of the intellectual in times of crisis and the pleasures of reading In the 21st century we might imagine grace as a striking and refined quality that is pleasurable to encounter but certainly not fundamental to anyone's existence or to the beliefs and practices that hold us together or drive us apart For millennia though it has been recognized as essential to the vitality of inner life as well as to the large scale shifts in perspective and legislation that improve the way we live as a society Grace is also astonishing always as the enormously insightful readings in The Art of Astonishment show Brittan reveals the concept's breadth as sacred and secular ancient and recent lived and literary And in so doing she shows us how the act of reading is like grace social but personal pleasurable and essential

Contested Transparencies, Social Movements and the Public Sphere Stefan Berger, Dimitrij Owetschkin, 2019-10-18 This edited collection examines the multi faceted phenomenon of transparency especially in its relation to social movements from a range of multi disciplinary viewpoints Over the past few decades transparency has become an omnipresent catch phrase in public and scientific debates The volume tracks developments of ideas and practices of transparency from the eighteenth century to the current day as well as their semantic cultural and social preconditions It connects analyses of the ideological implications of transparency concepts and transparency claims with their impact on the public sphere in general and on social movements in particular In doing so the book contributes to a better understanding of social conflicts and power relations in modern societies The chapters are organized into four parts covering the concept and ideology of transparency historical and recent developments of the public sphere and media the role of the state as an agent of surveillance and conflicts over transparency and participation connected to social movements Border Masculinities Amit Thakkar, Brian Baker, Chris Harris, 2024-10-08 This volume collates and examines literary and screened representations of what the editors term border masculinities It seeks to understand masculine subjectivities through fiction and screen within a complex global arena of relationships and fluid movements across multiple boundaries within that arena It also concerns paradigmatic borders related to class gender and ethnicities as well as other theoretical parameters which cut across porous spatial boundaries This collection contains a range of theoretically informed responses to varying cultural representations of such masculinities in Europe the Americas the Caribbean Australasia and Asia Thematic and conceptual connections between them are discussed in the introductory chapter and such links are also made between chapters Race, Nation, Translation Zoë Wicomb, 2018-11-20 The first collection of nonfiction critical writings by one of the leading literary figures of post apartheid South Africa The most significant nonfiction writings of Zo Wicomb one of South Africa s leading authors and intellectuals are collected here for the first time in a single volume This compilation features critical essays on the works of such prominent South African writers as Bessie Head Nadine Gordimer Njabulo Ndebele and J M Coetzee as well as writings on gender politics race identity visual art sexuality and a wide range of other cultural and political topics Also included are a reflection on Nelson Mandela and a revealing interview with Wicomb In these essays written between 1990 and 2013 Wicomb offers insight on her nation s history policies and people In a world in which nationalist rhetoric is on the rise and diversity and pluralism are the declared enemies of right wing populist movements her essays speak powerfully to a wide range of international issues Amputation in Literature and Film Erik Grayson, Maren Scheurer, 2021-08-10 Amputation in Literature and Film Artificial Limbs Prosthetic Relations and the Semiotics of Loss explores the many ways in which literature and film have engaged with the subject of amputation The scholars featured in this volume draw upon a wide variety of texts both lesser known and canonical across historical periods and language traditions to interrogate the intersections of disability studies with social political cultural and philosophical concerns Whether focusing on ancient texts by Zhuangzi or Ovid renaissance drama folktales collected by the Brothers Grimm novels or silent film the chapters in this volume highlight the dialectics of loss and gain in narratives of amputation to encourage critical dialogue and forge an integrated embodied understanding of experiences of impairment in which mind and body metaphor and materiality theory and politics are considered as interrelated and interacting aspects of disability and ability Approaches to Teaching Coetzee's Disgrace and Other Works Laura Wright, Jane Poyner, Elleke Boehmer, 2014-01-01 The novels of the South African writer J M Coetzee won him global recognition and the Nobel Prize in Literature in 2003 His work offers substantial pedagogical richness and challenges Coetzee treats such themes as race aging gender animal rights power violence colonial history and accountability the silent or silenced other sympathy and forgiveness in an allusive and detached prose that avoids obvious answers or easy ethical reassurance Part 1 of this volume Materials identifies secondary materials including multimedia and Internet resources that will help instructors guide their students through the contextual and formal complexities of Coetzee s fiction In part 2 Approaches essays discuss how to teach works that are sometimes suspicious of teachers and teaching The essays aim to help instructors negotiate Coetzee s ironies and allegories in his treatment of human relationships in a changing South Africa and of the shifting connections between human beings and the biosphere

Philosophy of J M Coetzee Jan Wilm analyses Coetzee s singular aesthetic style which he argues provokes the reader to read his works slowly The effected slow reading is developed into a method specifically geared to analyzing Coetzee s singular oeuvre and it is shown that his works productively decelerate the reading process only to dynamize the reader s reflexion in a way that may be termed philosophical Drawing on fresh archival material this is the first study of its kind to explore Coetzee s writing process as already slow as a program of seemingly relentless revision which brings forth his uniquely dense and crystalline style Through the incorporation of material from drafts and notebooks this study is also the first to combine an exploration of the writer s stylistic choices with a rigorous analysis of the reader s responses The book includes close readings of Coetzee s popular and lesser known work including Disgrace Waiting for the Barbarians Elizabeth Costello Life and Times of Michael K and Slow Man
